THE CENTURY

FOR NOVEMBER.

Beginning a Volume. Richly Illustrated.

The important feature of THE CENTURY MAGAZINE for the coming year—perhaps the most important ever undertaken by the magazine—is a series of separate papers on the great battles of the War for the Union, written by general officers high in command on both sides, including Generals Grant, Longstreet, Hill, McClellan, Beauregard, Pope, Rosecrans, Admiral Porter, and others. The series is begun in the November number with an interesting and graphically illustrated paper on

"THE BATTLE OF BULL RUN,"
By GEN. G. T. BEAUREGARD.

Gen. Beauregard not only describes the battle but touches upon his relations with Jefferson Davis and the general conduct of the War. The aim is to present in this series interesting personal experiences—the officer's own stories of their plans and operations. The illustrations will be full and accurate; and accompanying papers on "Recollections of a Private," begun in the same number, will add value to the series. The November CENTURY also contains first chapters of a new novel, the story of an American business man, by W. D. Howells; a timely paper on "How Shall We Elect Our Presidents?" short stories by "Uncle Remus" and others, and a number of striking illustrations. Yearly subscriptions, $4; single numbers, 35 cents. All book-sellers and news-dealers keep it.

THE CENTURY Co. N. Y. Publishers.

Now is the time to subscribe.
