they have an insurance type of program for the sudden loss of income. We are studying that because we think that too might offer an interesting approach. It may be that we have started an idea which will spread, which is the idea of collective protection in the ownership of a house.

So I want to thank members of the committee. We might go down in history. In fact I hope we go up in history.

Thank you.

The Chairman: Again, the meeting is adjourned.
