

should be bought by private subscription and why not such a body as the "War Veterans" Each ~~soldier~~ would surely be willing to pay a small sum towards the subscription.
Or could not a public subscription be got up, and present the pictures to the War Veterans, who so worthy?

Surely no 'foreign' art critic could prevent this?

Having heard my sister's story it appals me that such unworthy things can be.

My sister is utterly ignorant of this letter of mine, so please do not mention it to anyone
