I have lately received from one of my correspondents in the province of Quebeck the following copy of a letter that has been circulated throughout the province to persuade the Canadians to approve the late act of parliament, and to forbear joining with the British inhabitants of the province to solicit a repeal of it. The author of it is not known, but is supposed to be one of the priests of the Roman-Catholick seminary at Quebeck, it being a known fact, as my correspondent informs me, that some of the students at that seminary were employed several days in taking copies of it, which have been dispersed over all the province. The original letter was directed to Mr. Oury, a French advocate, or lawyer, at Quebeck, and was delivered at the entrance of the market of the upper town of Quebeck by a young boy, on the morning of the 26th day of December, 1774. One part of it mentions a design of raising a Canadian regiment of four or five hundred men, to be commanded
