

CHAPTER XIII.

Major-General Brock returns to the Niagara frontier—Armistice—Proposed attack on Sackett's Harbour prevented—Letters to and from Sir G. Prevost and Major-General Van Rensselaer—from Colonel Baynes—to and from Colonel Procter, and to J. S. Brock, Esq.—Wrongs of the Indians. 293

CHAPTER XIV.

Rival forces on the Niagara frontier—Capture of brigs Detroit and Caledonia—Letters to Sir G. Prevost and Colonel Procter—Battle of Queenstown, and death of Sir Isaac Brock—His funeral and character—Sir Roger Sheaffe—Description of Queenstown Heights, &c. 322

CHAPTER XV.

Sir R. Sheaffe and armistice—Further remarks on Sir Isaac Brock—Americans obtain the command of Lake Ontario—Capture of York—Attack on Sackett's Harbour—Colonel Procter's operations near Detroit—Defeat of British squadron on Lake Erie—Speech of Tecumseh—Retreat and surrender of Major-General Procter's army—Capture of Fort George, and surprise of the American troops at Stony Creek—Conflicts on the Niagara frontier, in 1814—Attack on Michilimackinac—23 British deserters—Peace—Sir G. Prevost's death and character—Inscription on Monument to—Colonel Tupper. 357

CHAPTER XVI.

Memoir of Tecumseh. 359

CHAPTER XVII.

Servant—Letters from the Duke of York, J. Savery and Irving Brock, Esqs., and Mrs. Eliot—Introduction of four Indian chiefs to George the Fourth, at Windsor—Destruction of Monument, and "gathering" on Queenstown Heights—Intended obelisk—Services of the 49th regiment, and gallant exploit of Lieutenant Fitzgibbon—Notice of Sir Isaac Brock's brothers, sisters, and nephews—Letters from Colonel Brock to James Cuthbert, Esq. 397

CHAPTER XVIII.

Sir George Prevost—Sir R. H. Sheaffe and Battle of Queenstown—41st regiment—Letter from Chief Justice Robinson 426

APPENDIX A.

SECTION I.—BRITISH AUTHORS.

1. Letter from Lord Aylmer—2. Dispatch from Captain Roberts—
3. Letters from General Hull and capitulation of Detroit—4. Extracts from Letters of Veritas—5. Sir G. Prevost's general order—6. Ex-