

CONTENTS.

XXV

JUVENILE REFORMATORIES—Continued.

Page.
..... 391	Writ of habeas corpus available in behalf of the children committed, but sel-
..... 391	dom used.....	423
..... 391	How far the children sleep in separate rooms or common dormitories.....	424
..... 391	How far they may communicate, and how far the law of silence is enforced ..	425
..... 392	Time spent in school.....	426
fluence	Branches pursued.....	426
..... 392	Progress made.....	427
SON OF	Number of volumes in library, &c.....	427
.....393-398	How far a fondness for reading is shown.....	428
..... 393	Whether a trade is taught.....	429
..... 393	Occupations carried on in each.....	429
depart-	Whether the labor of the children is let to contractors.....	430
..... 393	Chaplains.....	431
..... 393	How far the heart is cultivated, &c.....	432
..... 394	Importance attached to the inculcation of religious and moral truth.....	433
..... 394	Counsels given on reception.....	433
room.. 394	Classification and its details.....	434
..... 394	Antecedents of the children—how far recorded.....	435
of Cin-	How far their history is recorded while inmates.....	438
..... 394	How far a knowledge of them is kept up after their discharge or indenture..	439
..... 395	Proportion of the reformed.....	440
..... 395	Proportion of orphans.....	441
..... 396	do half-orphans.....	441
..... 396	do who have idle or vicious parents.....	442
..... 396	Recreations of the children.....	442
..... 396	Supervision while at play.....	443
..... 397	Whether officers in charge take part in their games.....	443
..... 398	The dietaries.....	443
..... 398	Whether the children are allowed food or luxuries beyond what the institu-
..... 398	tion provides.....	445
.....399-457	Attention given to cleanliness.....	446
stitutions	Health of the inmates.....	447
..... 399	Percentage on sick list.....	447
..... 400	Annual percentage of deaths.....	447
..... 400	Diseases most prevalent.....	448
..... 401	How often the physicians attend.....	448
..... 402	Hospital accommodations.....	449
..... 406	Aggregate annual earnings.....	449
..... 407	Aggregate annual expenses.....	450
..... 408	Average annual cost of each inmate.....	451
..... 409	Average time of retention.....	451
..... 410	Average age at reception.....	452
..... 411	Average age at discharge.....	452
..... 411	Punishments employed.....	453
..... 412	Rewards for good conduct.....	454
..... 412	Whether customary to present a Bible to each inmate on leaving.....	454
..... 413	Whether the gift is accompanied with suitable counsels.....	455
..... 414	Class of boys and girls most difficult to reform.....	456
..... 414	Whether right of guardianship is reserved after indenture.....	457
..... 414	Whether an indentured youth leaving his master can be brought back.....	456
..... 414	Whether a like power exists as to those who have gone out in other ways....	456
..... 415	V. ADMINISTRATION OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE.....	458-457
..... 415	Question I. What is the judicial system of your state?.....	458
..... 416	Answers by Geo. W. Searle and others, (see names of gentlemen responding,
..... 416	on page 364).....	458
..... 421	Question II. Are judges appointed or elected?.....	468