

CHAP. VII.

- Fourth Siege of Quebec, 1700—Naval operations—The brig Albemarle, 28 guns, drops anchor before Quebec, on 1st July, 1782, commanded by Capt. Horatio Nelson—The hero falls in love with Miss Mary Simpson, a Quebec beauty—Her death, as widow of Major Matthews, Governor of Chelsea Hospital, England, in 1830..... 32

CHAP. VIII.

- Fifth Siege of Quebec, 1775—Fourteen frigates in port from England, bringing out four Regiments of Brunswickers to fight for King George III, in the war of Independence—Arrival here of George III's son, William Henry, Duke of Clarence (later, William IV), in the Pegasus, frigate, August 1787—Ship-building active at Quebec in 1797-98-1801-1808.
On 18th August, 1791, arrival of H. M. S. Ulysses from Gibraltar, with H. R. H. Edward, Duke of Kent, 4th son of George III. 40

CHAP. IX.

- The Press Gang in the port of Quebec, 1807—Arrival from Montreal of first steamer, the Accommodation, November 1809—Several U. S. Generals landed from Montreal steamers, prisoners of war liberated on parole at Quebec, 1812-14.
Brigadier General Richard Montgomery's remains exhumed at Quebec, and forwarded per steamer to New York, in 1818.... 46

CHAP. X.

- The Columbus and Baron of Kenfrew built near Quebec, in 1821-5—The Pioneer Atlantic Steamer, Royal William, launched, at Quebec, in 1831—First steamship to cross the Atlantic with steam alone, in 1833..... 51

CHAP. XI.

- Steamer Canada lands at Lower Town, in August 1837, "Patriotic Montreal M. P. P.'s" for opening of Legislature, session, 1837—Arrival on 28th May 1838 of Lord Durham, High Commissioner, escorted by a flotilla of war vessels..... 56

CHAP. XII.

- Steamer Unicorn—Capt. Walter Douglas—Her career—1840.... 61