FRENCH SUCCESS

IN MID-MOROCCO

Strategic Post Near Capital

With Slight Loss.

PARIS, May 11 .- The foreign office

of Fez, with a loss of only four men

The capture of Teza is considered the most important step yet accomplished by the French in Mexico. The town is the key to the eastern approaches to Fez. Up to the present all expeditions into the interior of the country had been made from the Atlantic coast. The occupation of Teza will permit the completion of the railroad from Oran. Algeria, to Fez, and bring Fez within 62 hours of Paris.

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON, May 11.—Joseph Martin, M.P. for East Pancras, declares that he considers a despatch published by The Times on Saturday from its Toronto correspondent. in which stress was laid upon the alleged "Americanization of Canada" as very dangerous.

The correspondent mentioned also the need for "molding the Canadian peoplé into a common devotion to the empire." As to this Mr. Martin says: "The fewer molding attempts by the people of the United Kingdom the better. One strong reason for making ter. One strong reason for making the British sway popular is that the Canadian people are allowed to pursue their own fancies and manage their
