Commercial Summary.

With the exception of fall wheat, which was a failure, the crops are good in the district surrounding Lindsay, Ont. There is also an improvement in the lumber trade, and preparations are being made for a large output next winter.

A NOTICEABLE feature in the streets of Hamilton is the number of strangers evidently possessing means, and unmistakably old countrymen, who are on the look out for farms. The extensive advertising which Canada is getting in England just now will doubtless have the effect of sending us a great many of that most desirable class, immigrants with capital.

C. L. BAKER, of Lindsay, Ont., for many years carrying on an extensive wholesale and retail grocery business in that place, and largely engaged in the purchase of wheat and other cereals, besides conducting a large pork packing establishment, is about leaving for the West, intending to open business at Grand Forks, Dakota. The business in Lindsay he has sold to Mr. Archibald Campbell, who has been his general manager for some years, and
