

CONTENTS.

7

	CHAPTER VII.	PAGE
Unprincipled Scheme of Cortes; His Treacherous Seizure of Montezuma; Burning of the Aztec Chiefs; Outrage on the Emperor's Person; Frustrated Conspiracy of the Princes; the Caciques swear Allegiance to the Spanish Crown; Affecting Scene; Great Tribute of Treasure; Rapacity of Cortes,.....		126
	CHAPTER VIII.
Religious Zeal of Cortes; Discontent of the Mexicans; Dangerous Position of the Spaniards; Transactions at the Court of Spain; Velasquez dispatches an Expedition against Cortes; Cortes marches against Narvaez; Defeats and takes him Prisoner; His Politic Conduct after Victory; His Forces greatly augmented,.....		132
	CHAPTER IX.
Massacre of the Caciques by Alvarado; the Garrison Besieged; Cortes returns to Mexico; His Anger and Insolence; General Attack by the Aztecs; Desperate Conflict for many days; Montezuma addresses the People; Disastrous Result; the Great Teocalli taken by Storm,.....		137
	CHAPTER X.
Cortes prepares to leave the City; Death of Montezuma; the "Noche Triste," or Miserable Night; Great Slaughter of Spaniards and Tlascalans on the Causeway of Tacuba; the Retreat to Tlascalans; Battle of Otumba, and Extraordinary Victory of the Spaniards,.....		142
	CHAPTER XI.
Fidelity of the Tlascalcan Chiefs; Resolution of Cortes; the War renewed; Great Successes of the Spaniards; Sagacious Policy of Cortes; He acquires a Great Force of Native Allies; Death of Quilahuas, and Accession of Guatemoxin to the Aztec Throne; Cortes marches to the Valley of Mexico—Takes up his Quarters at Tescuco,.....		146
	CHAPTER XII.
The Campaign against Mexico renewed; Iztapalapan and other Cities taken by Storm; Great Accessions to the Power of Cortes; Brigantines transported overland from Tlascala; Many Battles with the Aztecs—their Resolution; Cortes marches around the Lakes, and storms many Cities—Arrives at Teocuba; Singular Display of Emotion,.....		150
	CHAPTER XIII.
Return to Tescuco; Conspiracy against Cortes—His Extraordinary Policy and Self-command; Launching of the Fleet; Execution of Xicotencatl; Defeat of a Great Mexican Flotilla by the Fleet; Mexico Blockaded; Continual Assaults on the City; Courage and Obstinacy of the Combatants,.....		153
	CHAPTER XIV.
General Assault on the City; Artful Device of the Besieged; Defeat of the Spaniards—their Losses; Terrible Particulars of the Sacrifice of Prisoners; the Great Dram; Discouragement and Defection of the Allies—their Return; Gradual Destruction of the City,.....		159
	CHAPTER XV.
Terrible Sufferings and Mortality of the Besieged; Obstinate Resistance of Guatemoxin; Courage and Fidelity of his People; Mexico taken by Storm; Fearful Massacre; Capture of Guatemoxin; Reflections on the Conquest,.....		164
	CHAPTER XVI.
The Torture of Guatemoxin; Settlement of the Country; Fresh Enterprises; Offices and Titles conferred on Cortes—His Ostentation—His Sagacious Policy; Great Extension of the Spanish Territory; the Revolt of Olid; Terrible March to Honduras; the Murder of Guatemoxin,.....		168
	CHAPTER XVII.
Arrival at Honduras; Usurpation in Mexico; Obsequies and Masses performed for Cortes—His Return; Suspicion of the Court; Cortes sails to Spain; Honours bestowed on him; Returns to Mexico; Expensive Expeditions; Cortes again returns to Spain; Unsuccessful at Court; His Death; His Character; Fate of the Conquerors,.....		172
	CHAPTER XVIII.
Condition of the Indians and the Spanish Colonists; National Pride; System of Government; Depredations of the Buccaneers; Public Works for the Protection of the Capital; Indian Revolts; Vera Cruz seized by Agramont; Jesuits Expelled,.....		176
	CHAPTER XIX.
Commencement of the First Revolution; Iturrigaray; Hidalgo; First Outbreak; Insurgents defeated by Calleja; Rayon and Morelos; Congress at Chilpancingo; Declaration of Independence; Reverses of the Patriots; Iturbide,.....		181