

but if only one candidate be nominated he shall be declared duly elected.

ART. VI.—VACANCIES, HOW FILLED.

In the event of the death, removal from the Province, or expulsion from any cause of any of the officers of the Association during their incumbency, a successor or successors shall be elected for the balance of the term by the executive committee, at a meeting to be called for that special purpose.

ART. VII.—DUTIES OF PRESIDENT.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association at which he is present; submit all motions in order, and otherwise discharge the duties of his office according to usage.

He shall, on the requisition of three members of the executive committee, call a meeting of that committee; or, on the requisition of seven of the non-official members, he shall call a special general meeting of the Association. Of all special meetings so called, five days notice shall be given by usual course.
