

is this! Is it not great and grand and Godlike—worthy of God Himself? The gratification of His own heart of love, the glory of His precious Son, and the salvation of a sinner, all bound up together. What a bundle of grace and glory! Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has so ordered it that His own beloved Son should do all the work and get all the praise, and that you and I, poor guilty things, believing on Him, should not only get all the blessing, but enjoy the blissful company of the Blessor for ever and ever. "O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt His name together." (Ps. xxxiv. 3.)

But perhaps your eager enquiry may be, How is it that since I do really distrust self and self-work, and wholly rely upon Christ and Christ's work, I have not the full certainty of my salvation? You say, If my feelings warrant me saying
