

	FACING PAGE
Red Cross ambulances on the coast	151
A French "75" in the mud of a Flanders beet-field	172
An ambulance which was struck by a shell while carrying wounded from east of Ypres	172
View showing depth of 17-inch shell hole in the garden of a château between Poperinghe and Elverdinghe	173
Staff Officers at lunch	176
Looking east over the Menin Bridge at the edge of Ypres	177
Dragoon Guards resting in the huts at Vlamertinghe	212
Graves of Capt. Annesley, Lieut. Drake, and Capt. Peto, all of the 10th Hussars, in a graveyard on the Menin Road	213
Officers of the Cavalry Corps	218
A typical farm in Flanders, in which British soldiers were billeted	219
Hussars' cook-house, Vlamertinghe huts, Vlamertinghe	248
Group of Cavalry Officers at the huts at Vlamertinghe	249
View of the 13th century château at Esquelbecque	260
"Jeff" Phipps-Hornby and Frederic Coleman comparing underpinning outside Ypres, May, 1915: the thinnest and thickest "supports" in the 1st Cavalry Division	261
Map	296