Oswald Gage Came to His Beath Thru Carelessness of Hamilton Employes.

HAMILTON, Sept. 12.-(Special.)-The coroner's jury to-night, in the inquest into the death of Oswald Gage, who was killed at the Grand Trunk boy came to his death thru the careessness of some G.T.R. employes, and censured the company regarding the lack of proper lighting at the station. Gage had just returned from the Toronto Exhibition on the midnight train andand was crossing one of the tracks on his way to the station, when he was struck by a shunted freight car, and instantly killed.

the railway's rule that cars should not be shunted between the passenger trains and the station had been dis-regarded and that the station was not sufficiently lighted. Crown Attorney Washington acted for the crown and Coroner McNichol presided over the in-

A brand-new nine-dollar club bag, which was being offered for sale for $1 by Patrick Hughes and Jos. Davis, Torontonlans, aroused the suspicions of P. C. Goodman this afternoon, and as the men could not produce a convincing story to account for the bargain, they were taken to the police station on a charge of vagrancy. Subsequent enquiry revealed the fact that the men stole the bag from the show window of a king-street east mechnat.

Three burslaries committeed last night were reported to the police today. Fifty dollars froh the residence of Pastor Philpot and a bicycle and a square meal from H. Cummer was the extent of the swag secured by the robbers. The police have no clue to the identity of the house-breakers.

Judge Monck this morning acquitted the Italian girl who had been charged with theft by her erstwhile fiance. The man claimed to have sent the girl money on the understanding that they were to wed when she came to Canada and that she refused to carry out the contract or refund the money. In defence the girl tsetified that the man had said he would not marry her unless forced to do so, and warned her that she should be sorry if he did marry her.
