DENTALS HAVE BIG TASK BEFORE THEM

Must Win in Kitchener Tonight—Box Will Play—Gossip.

The second and last game of the senior O.H.A. finals will be played in Kitchener tonight between the Canadian Dental Corps of Toronto and the Kitchener team. The Dents go to Kitchener without a goal margin to their credit. Kitchener's great performance of holding the Dents to a tie here on Tuesday night has disheartened many followers of the khaki-clad Toronto soldiers, but many others are of the opinion that the Dents will pull out a victory right in Kitchener.

There is no denying that the Dents are good fighters away from home. Their feat of going west and bringing home the cup last year will not be forgotten. Another source of hope for the Toronto fans is the fact that the Dents have practiced with the Dents yesterday, and will go to Kitchener with the team today. Box will play part of the fixture, and should be a lower of strength, with his speed and backchecking.

The Dents will use a different style of play against the Kitchener outfit to that which they used in their last game. The forwards will be sent out with instructions to check back for the full sixty minutes, and many fans look to this to stop the speedy forward line of the western team. The ice will be heavy, but this will not stop the Dents. They will be in better shape than on Tuesday night, and have more than a fair chance to beat Kitchener right on their own ice.

Tuesday night's score was 4 to 4, and no matter which team wins the Allan Cup will be defended on Toronto ice. The local fans would much rather see the Dents stacked up against the western invaders after the cup. The Dents failed to show that "punch" on Tuesday night that has won all their battles this year, and they will not stop the Kitchener front line will be much stronger, and Jimmy Stewart will likely be found in the role of substitute.

Kitchener will be favored in the betting, and if any kind of odds are offered, the Toronto delegation will be willing to back the Dentals.

The team will leave for Kitchener on the 12:45 p.m. O.T.R. train, and a large crowd of Toronto fans will make the trip. The teams will be:

Dents—C. Stewart, Goal; Truschinski, Sheldon, Defence; Hiller, Soloman, Milam, Centre; Hiller, Soloman, Box, Left; Soloman, J. Stewart, Sub.; Leroux, Belfore, Lawson, W. A. Hewitt, Judge of play—Tom Munro, London.

Hamby Shore, a real veteran in point of service, has likely played his last professional hockey. The Ottawa defence player has been released by the club, and says himself that he is thru and will never attempt to play hockey again. He has been playing senior hockey for fourteen years, the most of the time in an Ottawa uniform, and has given the club faithful considerable support for the bill, which is on the calendar of the senate.

A special view will be in operation at the arena tonight during the progress of the U.S.S. Woodstock junior semi-final, carrying the scores of the Kitchener-Dental game. Many fans who will be unable to get up to Kitchener will, no doubt, take this opportunity of getting the first-hand news of the final, as well as watching the juniors perform.

The Seattle speed boys breezed into the finals for the Pacific Coast hockey championship Wednesday night, when Lester Patrick's game crowd of skaters outlasted the Vancouver crew and won one of the greatest little hockey seasons of the season. The score was 2 to 1, and the two clubs struggled for over two hours overtime before Captain Bobbie Rowe duped Goalle Lehman and bagged the winning goal. In the opening minutes until Rowe's winning shot, the contest was of the sensational order, and another crowd which packed the Fifth Avenue arena cheered the Mets to a well-earned victory. It was a battle of goalkeepers, and while Hughie Lehman gave a wonderful imitation of a stone-wall, Norman Fowler was the lad who stood the grueling longer and carried off the honors.

The following telegram was received yesterday morning from Kingston Hockey Club by Secretary W. A. Hewitt of the O.H.A.: "Your telegram post-

SHOWED MEMBERS THAT BOXING IS SKILFUL

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 28.—Packer McFarland, boxing instructor at Camp Zachary Taylor, the new national army camp near Louisville, returned today from Frankfort, where last night he participated in a demonstration in the interest of a bill before the state senate which would legalize boxing. The bill was introduced by members of the legislature, a number of whom are interested in the sport. McFarland boxed four rounds with an amateur and delivered an address outlining the advantages of boxing to the members of the legislature. He pointed out that boxing is a clean sport, and that it teaches soldiers how to handle themselves when they come to grips with the Germans in the trenches, where space to use the bayonet might be too restricted.

It was indicated that the exhibition and the explanations of McFarland had gained considerable support for the bill, which is on the calendar of the senate.

poning game received. Please extend our sympathy to the De La Salle Club, Kingston, who would rather play Tuesday night by default. (Signed) W. Cooke, secretary.

This manner of taking the postponement will make many friends for Kingston. Not a few clubs would have followed the Toronto team in "pulling one over" in order to get their injured players in condition.

A despatch from Kitchener late last night says: Local fans are confident that the Kitchener will carry away the Allan Cup. Kitchener's classy right wing, is suffering from a fractured nose as a result of his collision at the arena Tuesday night, but he will be able to play. Indications are that over four thousand people will crowd into the limited quarters of the Auditorium. Every available seat has been sold. Parkes declares his nose will not interfere with his playing, and the rest of the team are in excellent shape for the game. Even money is being put up locally.

The Ontario kept up their winning streak Tuesday night by defeating Thistle by the score of 6-4. With the score 4-1 against them at the start of the second period, Ontario came in from the ice and ran in six goals, and from then on were never worried. The following are the scorers: Goal, Oatertout; left defence, Stewart; right defence, Armstrong; forwards, Harrington; left wing, Stanton; right wing, Barry.

HUNDRED AND FORTY IS ASSOCIATION SCHEDULE

McGill Will Take Over Managerial Job With Jajole Tomorrow.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 28.—The 1918 season of the American Association will open on May 1-20 days later than last season—and close about Sept. 25. The club owners at their annual meeting here today voted to adopt a 140-day schedule instead of 154 and after failing to reach a decision on the question of raising the admission prices to meet the federal war tax law adjourned their meeting until tomorrow.

Whether Larry Jajole, the former Cleveland star, who piloted the Toronto club to a championship in the International League last season, will succeed here as a result of his collision at the Indianapolis club, will be decided in Indianapolis on Saturday.

James C. McGill, owner of the Indianapolis club, was in communication with Jajole over the long distance telephone tonight and made the appointment. McGill had expected to see Jajole here today, but the veteran major league star explained that he failed to receive word McGill had selected LeRoy from a list of 100 applicants to manage his club.

Joe Tinker, president and manager of the Columbus Club, presented a scheme to the club owners which he believes will give him a large share of the business. His plan is to raise a pool of $4000, each team finishing first and second in the race play a post-season series, the winners to take a pot. The plan probably will be adopted.

BRIGHT WINS TANKARD AT W. ONTARIO SPIEL

Special to The Toronto World.

St. Mary's, Ont., Feb. 28.—By sticking diligently to their knitting, the curlers in the Western Ontario Tankard bospiel finished up the competition in the third trophy game by shortly before 8.30, this morning. Ice conditions were getting worse yesterday noon, and these were bound not to improve, and to have postponed the 'spiel' after the first two on three rounds would have meant, possibly, no decisions whatever this season. So the winning contestants stuck to their guns until the trophy winners and runners-up were declared.

The Cuthbert rink of Bright won the Tankard in a bang-up extra-end battle with W. H. Tovell's local quartet. The score was 7 to 6, a most remarkable victory for a 12-aid game, due to the respective skips on the terribly heavy ice, the like of which has been seldom seen in Ontario.

The Victor Trophy was captured by the rink skipped by Alex. Goldie, in the final game with W. E. (Wes) Andrews, 8 to 5.

The Windsor Hotel Challenge Trophy was carried off by the rink skipped by Fred N. Allen by 4 to 3 in six ends. Only that number of ends were played by agreement.

Tankard Final.

Bright—J. Metvi, W. E. (Wes) Andrews, S. S. H. Chappelle, W. Sutherland, J. A. Head, R. M. Northgrave, Alex. Goldie, 7 to 6.

Two Veteran Pitchers May Set Pace This Year

Two old-time pitchers as pitchers go may be the bright shining lights of the National League this season, if their performances have anything to do with it.

Brooklyn claims one of them, Babe Marquard, famous as the $13,000 beauty who was transformed into said beauty by the work of Dr. J. B. Robinson, who sent him to New York, where he was sent to the Phils. He was a member of the well-known Philadelphia team, and his last year redeemed him and makes him one of the Phils. his premier honors with the work of Marquard and Bender in 1917 was one of the surprises in the National League. Marquard is the most effective pitcher in the league. His record is 21 wins and 10 losses since 1912 when he won 19 straight games.

Phillips Bender first appeared on the scene in 1914. He was a different pitcher from the man who had had such a bad record in 1917. He showed the results of training and exercise during the winter. With a record of 10 wins and 10 losses he proved to be the best pitcher in the league. He has lost Sherry Smith and Rogers in his battery staff and Marquard probably will be called upon to assume the premier position there.

LOOKS LIKE END OF GREAT NATIONAL GAME

The Ottawa Citizen says: The announcement from Montreal yesterday that the National Lacrosse Club was not likely to be reorganized for the coming season caused considerable surprise in local sport circles as the National Club has been the mainstay of lacrosse for many years and its suspension would probably mean the death of the national game in the east. Lacrosse is practically gone in Toronto and in many other cities, but it was holding on grimly at Montreal. If the Nationals drop it, it may be all out.

Mack had had not yet communicated with the three players, but he expected them to join the Athletics before they leave for the southern training grounds next month.

Far from that, he is inclined to have a little bit more of his time to his Chinese team who are making the first Chinese crew in the history of American aquatic.
