Gossard beginners paid good living salaries

Besides giving each girl a share in the year's profits, it is part of the Gossard plan to enable her to earn enough to live on from the start. In the Gossard operating rooms she not only finds comparative freedom from financial worry, but congenial company, a bright, airy and cheerful place to work, and a most interesting and attractive occupation. The materials are exquisitely fine and dainty and the making of corsets after all is a business for which a woman is naturally adapted. That's why Gossard girls make good money from the outset.
