Cataract Company Wants Council to Guarantee Bonds for the Necessary Loan.

HAMILTON, May 10.-(Special.)-This evening Colonel J. M. Gibson and W. C. Hawkins of the Cataract Power Company appeared before the aldermanic committee appointed confer with them, and made two proconfer with them, and made two propositions with reference to the street rallway. Mr. Gibson stated that it would cost between $500,000 and $600,000 to instal an entirely new system with necessary extensions, and he offered to do this in one year, building the cars in Hamilton, if the city would guarantee the bonds that would have to be issued, the city to have all the profits made for the first ten years and all in the second ten years, with the exception of a five per cent. diviand all in this second ten years, with the exception of a five per cent. dividend to the stockholders.

His second proposition was that the city should be satisfied for ten years with the amount now received in mileage and percentage, and the full percentage on the earnings of the last ten years, with the exception of the amount of increase shown in the first ten years.

The mayor asked Mr. Gibson what he would do for an annual bonus. Mr. Gibson will reduce these three propositions to writing and the com-H. G. & B. Agreement.

The action brought by the minority shareholders of the H. G. & B. against the Cataract directors was continued to-day before Chancellor Boyd. W. C. Hawkins, one of the Cataract directors, admitted that the H. G. and B. in its present condition was dangerous to life, altho the Cataract Company was making a profit of $12,000 a year in selling its power, and had $35,000 in the bank to the road's credit. Col. Gibson said one of the reasons for the Cataract taking over the road was to shut out other power companies. When the Cataract took control it agreed to give the G.T.R. a monopoly of the express
