NO TRACE OF DR. ANDREE. German Arctic Expedition at Hammerfest-Islands Discovered. London, Aug. 24.—A despatch to The Daily News from Berlin says:

The German Arctic expedition has put into Hammerfest to make repairs to its vessel. It discovered no trace of Dr. Andree and his balloon. The expedition, after weathering many storms off Spitzbergen, steamed to King Chanles' Land, which consists of two large islands. A third island was discovered, which was christened August Scherl Island in honor of the promoter of the expedition.

The Montreal contingent who took part in the Toronto police games are loud in praise of the reception they met with, in the Queen City at the hands of their brethren on the force. The Montreal men give all credit to Toronto for being the force which has kept athletics alive among the police, and they hope that the good feeling engendered by these annual contests will cement the bonds of friendship and do good to athletics. Capt. Loye says next year's team will make a better showing, although they did very well this year.

Brooklin, Aug. 24.—(Special.)—At 2.30 o'clock this afternoon Lilian Beatrice Holliday, second daughter of Daniel Holliday, second daughter of Daniel Holliday of this town, was married to William J. Marquis of St. Cloud. Minnesota, formerly of Pickering, Ont. Among the guests present were: Hon. John Dryden and Mrs. Dryden and Miss Dryden, Mrs. Dr. Starr, Toronto; Misses Starr, Rick and Oliver, R. H. Walks, B. A., Lindsay; and Mr. Lick, Oshawa; J. W. Thomson, Trinity University, was best man and Miss Ella Holliday, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Lamblyn Methodist minister of this town. After the wedding the happy couple went west on the C.P.R. to Lank Rapids, Minnesota, on a honeymoon trip. Both bride and groom are graduates of Whitmer Pickering Boy. west on the C.P.R. to Lank Rapids Minnesota, on a honeymoon trip. Bot bride and groom are graduates of Whit by Collegiate Institute, where they firs met. Mr. Marquis is principal of school in Lank Rapids. He is an hone graduate of St. Cloud Normal School having passed head of the class of '9' Hosts of friends were at the station t throw rice after the genial pair.

The Princess Theatre will throw open its doors for the season next Monday afternoon, Aug. 20, and the Cummings Stock Company, a company of good-looking arisists, who appear to be quite capable of filling the requirements of the long list of plays, which Manager Cummings has secured, will make its initial bow before a Toronto auddence in "Jane," one of the best farce-conecites ever seen in this city. Mr. Cummings easys that he has used every effort to provide a first-class company for his patrons and declares that the rehearsals the company are giving give evidence of kis good fortune. The performance of "Jane," Mr. Cummings says, will certainly be a very acceptable surprise. Miss Nettle Marshall will play the title-role the first week, because it is exactly suited to her and she will be ludicrously funny in it. It will be a bigger hit than her "Cinders" of last year. The leading woman will play Lucy, the leading juvenile role originally played by Viola Allen, and she will also make a hit. She is one of the beauties of the stage. Mr. Raiph Stuart will appear as Charles Shackelford, a light-comedy part, finely suited to his comedy methods. Mr. Thomas J. Grady will appear as William; Mr. Kingstone as Kershaw, etc., and the performance an introduced in transitual the time of the insolvency, and are now send in the insolvency, and are now send in transitual the time of the insolvency, and therefore in the insolvency, and are now send in transitual the time of the insolvency, and are now send in transitual the time of the insolvency, and are now send in transitual the time of the insolvency, and are now send in transitual the time of the insolvency and strike.
