EARLY IN THE SEASON WE PREDICTED that the real estate market in this city would be extremely active, and the many transactions on the local market prove that our prognostication was well founded. Even though our office over $100,000 worth of real estate has been sold, the tendency among buyers is still towards further investments. The economy of the market, being paid out full particulars of any property you think might be suitable for your requirements. We mention a few:

Dundas street—One of the best retail business blocks in the city, making returns of 8 per cent on investment. Price, $30,000.

Queen's avenue—A very fine 2-story brick residence, containing all modern appointments. Price, $3,200. Will bring in a rental of 8 per cent annually.

Piccadilly street—2-story brick residence, containing 8 rooms. Price, $900. Will pay 10 per cent on investment.

Piccadilly street—2-story brick residence, containing all modern appointments; slate roof; built in 1896; a beautiful home at a low figure. Price, $1,700.

King street, near Wellington—2-story brick residence, all modern improvements, including hot water heating; assessed $3,500. Price on application.

Dundas street—Large 3-story brick residence, containing 11 rooms, all modern appointments, including hot water heating. Will pay 7 per cent on investment.

Central avenue—That very eligible building site, occupying the northeast corner of Central avenue and Wellington street; will divide into two lots if desired. When the lot is gone you cannot duplicate it; overlooks the Park. Lots are getting scarce—secure it now.

Wellington street—Charming building lot, west of the city limits, near the new street, lying between the residences of Mr. Magee and Major Hayes. This is a fine lot at a low price.

Also a large number of vacant lots, ranging in price from $100 to $1,000 each, and cottages ranging in price from $300 to $2,000.

Money advanced to purchase property, build cottages, or for any other purpose. No trouble to secure property or give information.
