n a HAINS' STORY UNSHAKEN UNDER CEASELESS FIRE

Under Strict Surveillance, Fearing Outbreak.

FLUSHING, N. Y., Jan. 6 .- For over six hours to-day District Attorney Dar-rin kept Thornton J. Hains under a ceaseless fire of searching cross-ex-amination, and while the defendant frequently admitted that he could not remember some of the minor details, mony remained unshaken

The story writer, on trial for killing William E. Annis, told the court that E.T. SANDELL he had been ill yesterday, which he fire when adjournment came.
Thornton Hains testified that be cause of the admonitions of his parents, he kept his brother under constant surveilance, fearing he might do some insane thing. District Attorney Darrin by ingenious interrogations, led and drove by turns the defendant to admit that when Annis' boat was nearing the float he told Capt. Hains that he was going home and left the army officer standing on the dock, showing every evidence of mental disturbance. Hains said he had walked about 30 or 40 feet toward the club house and Justic, Crane informed counsel both sides that they must have their evidence in by next Saturday night.
