One of Bredin's Drivers Has Miraculous Escape From Death -West Teronto News.

NORTH TORONTO, Aug. 19 .- (Special.)-While a Glen Grove car on the Metropolitan division of the Toronto and York Railway was running north this morning about 9 o'clock, it struck one of Bredin's bread wagons, a short distance south of Albertus-avenue, smashing the rig to pieces and throwing the driver over the fence. The driver of the wagon, Edward Goulding, had a miraculous escape, from death, but beyond the shock and a slight shaking up is none the worse for his thrilling experience. Goulding had been speaking with the driver of another of Bredin's rigs, and turning across the tracks allowed himself as he thought ample time to clear the rails. Eyewitnesses of the whole affair de-
