W. F. Maclean asked if it had ever occurred to the minister that because the Ottawa improvement commission was not purchasing land now it would cost more when they found it necessary to purchase and was really boosting real estate in the city.

Mr. Fielding replied that, generally speaking, the policy of this and the previous governments was to purchase land when it was required at the prevailing market price.

Dr. Sproule said that with the grant towards the new hotel and other contributions, Ottawa in ten years would get well on to two million dollars. He was afraid that as a result of this generosity something additional would be asked for every year.

Major Currie suggested that the $80,000 which the government had made by the speculation on the barracks property in Toronto should be turned over to Toronto as conscience money.

These rules order that an employe shall undertake certain risks. OTTAWA, Mayya.—(Special.)—In the commons this afternoon Major Currie asked the government if the idea of state-owned cables had been departed from.

Hon. R. Lemieux replied that it was a magnificent theory, but that they had not yet been able to put it into practice.

W. F. Maclean remarked that the sconer the government built a cable from Canada to Great Britain the better it would be for the country. They would never be able to get reasonable rates until then, and the people of Canada would support the proposal.

When Mr. Fielding's bill regarding bounties on wire rods was under consideration, James Conmee said it was time the government was turning its attention, to producing from and steel from Canadian ore, instead of from foreign ore. Such action would give a great impetus to the mining industry in this country.

Ottawa City Grant.

In connection with the bill to increase the grant to the City of Ottawa, Mr. Fielding explained that besides the additional $40,000 to be given the improvement commission annually, there was $15,000 to be paid direct to the city for fire protection.

W. F. Maclean asked if it had ever occurred to the minister that because they are afraid to oppose ex-Ald. Laporte in Hochelas, at the Propose ex-Ald. Laporte in Hochelas ga at the present time.
