

ed to the Committees to forward their funds as they may be collected to the General Committee, who will faithfully apply them to the general objects of the Society—But when the Local Committees desire it, they shall receive Books at Cost and Charges, to the amount of one-fourth of their remittances.

7th. There shall be one General Meeting of the whole Society, including any members of the Local Committees who can conveniently attend, on such day and at such place as the President (or in his absence the Vice Presidents) may name—of which due notice will be given, with an invitation to every Committee to send at least one Clergyman and two Laymen to represent such Committee, and with a recommendation that each Committee shall meet at some convenient time immediately before the General Meeting of the Society—that any necessary suggestions may be offered to the Representatives of the Committees, for their guidance at the General Meeting; and a special general meeting may be called at any time and in any place when the President, or in his absence, two or more Vice Presidents, shall consider it desirable to appoint such special General Meeting.

8th. The objects to which the attention of the Society shall be directed, shall be, generally, those which have engaged the two great Church Societies in England, for the Propagation of the Gospel, and for Promoting Christian Knowledge.

The following objects shall more particularly engage the attention of the Society, so soon as their means may enable them to afford such attention.

1st. Supplies of Books and Tracts from the Stores of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge; and such other Books and Tracts in strict conformity with the principles of the Established Church, as may have been approved by the Bishop, and the Clergy of the Island.

2d. Missionary visits to neglected and destitute places, under the direction of the Bishop.
