Father of Light! Mysterious Deity!

Who art the great f AM—the last the first.

Art righteous, holy, merciful and just— In realmed, noty, merciful and just—
In realms of glory, scenes where angels sing,
Heaven is the dwelling-place of God our King;
Hallowed thy name, which doth all names trans
cend;

Be thou adored, our great Almighty Friend; Thy glory shines beyond creation's space,
Named in the book of justice and of grace;
Thy kingdom towers beyond thy starry skies;
Kingdom satanic falls, but thine shall rise. Come let thine empire, O thou Holy One,
Thy great and everlasting will be done!
Will God make known his will, his power display Done is the work of mortals to obey.

Done is the great, the wondrous work of love—
On Calvary's cross he died, but reigns above—
Earth bears the record in thy holy word. As heaven adores thy love, let earth, O Lord; It shines transcendent in the eternal skies, Is praised in heaven; for man the Saviour dies!

In songs immortal, angels laud his name,

Heaven shouts with joy, and saints his love pro

Gire us, O Lord, our food, nor cease to give Us proper food, on which our souls may live. This be our boon to-day and days to come, This be our boon to-day and days to come,

Day without end, in our eternal home;

Our needy souls supply from day to day,

Daily assist, and aid us when when we pray;

Bread though we ask, yet, Lord, thy blessing lend

And make us grateful when thy gifts descend.

Forgive our sins, which in destruction place

Us, the vile rebels of a rebel race.

Our folling, fruits and treansages forgive. Our follies, fruits and trespasses forgive—
Debts which we no'er can pay nor thou receive.
As we, O Lord, our neighbor's faults o'erlook,
We beg thou'dst blot ours from thy memory's book Forgire our enemies; extend thy grace Our souls to save, e'en Adam's guilty race. Debtors to thee in gratitude and love, And in that duty paid thy saints above.

Lead us from sin, and in thy mercy raise
Us from the tempter and his hellish ways;
Not in our own, but in His name who bled, Into thine ear we pour our every need.

Temptation's fatal charm help us to shun, Temptation: I tall charm neap us to snun,
But may we conquer through thy conquering
Deliver us from all which can annoy
Us in this world, and may our souls destroy;
From all calamities which men betide,
Evil and death, oh! turn our feet aside, Evil and death, on! turn our reet aside,
For we are mortal worms, and cleave to clay;
Thine 'iis to rule, and mortals' to obey.
Is not thy mercy, Lord, for ever free?
The whole creation knows no God tut thee.
Kingdom and empire in thy presence fall;
The King Eternal reigns the King of all. Power is with thee—to thee be glory given, And be thy name adored by earth and heaven. The praise of saints and angels is thy own: Glory to thee, the Everlasting One, For ever be thy triune name adored. Amen! Hosanna! blessed be the Lord!

The Striking Age.

Really John Bull may be almost described as a maniac with lucid intervals. He appears suffering under some form of mania or other. A few years ago it was the Railway Mania—a very dangerous phrenzy. Then from time to time comes a Poultry Mania, or one of the similar and milder forms of insanity. The mania mow prevailing is one which, if not attended to, may perhaps prove troublesome. This is the Striking Mania. Every-body is striking. The other day it was the cabmen; now it is the Dockyard labourers; the policemen, even, have struck and thrown down their statves. Our mechanics have so far become like machines, that like clocks, as clocks ought to be, they are all striking together.

Should this mania spread, we shall have striking become what might be called the order, but that will be the disorder, of the day. The professions will strike; you will send for your lawyer to make your will, and your messenger will return with non est inventus—struck; or should you ask the legal gentleman a six-and-eightpenny question, you will discover that he has struck for 13s, 4d. The physicians and surgeons will strike for two-guinea fees; the apothecaries for ten shilling mixtures. The clergy will all strike—as indeed some of them, the poor curates, might reasonably do—and pluralists will be demanding forty thousand a year instead of twenty; whilst bishops will hang up the mitre, stick the crosier over the chirm, op-piece, and hold out against the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for double incomes. In short, almost everybody will strike except the threshers, the smiths, and the puglists.

With all this striking, though, we had better take care that we are not floored.—Punch.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A MOST MIRACULOUS CURE OF BAD LEGS,
A AFTER 43 YEARS' SUFFERING.

Fxtract of a Letter from Mr. William Galpin, o. 70, St.
Mary & Street, Weymouth, dated May 15th, 1851.

To Professor Hollowar,
Sir,—At the age of 18 my wife (who is now 61) caugh a violent cold, which settled in her legs, and ever since that time they have been more or less sore, and greatly inflamed. Her agonies were distracting, and for months together she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep. Every remedy that medical men advised was tried, but without effect; her health suffered severely, and the state of her legs was terrible, I had often read your Advertisements and advised her to try your Pills and Ointmeat; and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved use less, she consented to do so. She commenced six week ago, and, strange to relate, is now in good health. Her legs are painless, without seam or scars, and her sleep sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the sufference of the sufference
