BOY LEADS ABOUT 1,000 GIRLS ARE WORKING FOR FOOD CONSERVATION
 Arthur Ryan of St. Peter's Ahead in High School Entrance
NAMES OF SUCCESSFUL ONES

The campaign for greater production carried on by the N. B. Education Department is progressing well throughout the province. Already fifty or more centres have organizations established among the girls, and each girl who has enlisted in this has promised to can or otherwise preserve at least twenty-five quarts of food materials during 1917. About 1,000 girls have already entered and the enlistments are being added to every day.

The thirty domestic science teachers who in June volunteered to give a part of their vacation, without any remuneration, to help clubs in the methods of canning and preserving, met from July 10 to 14 at the Ladies' College, Sackville, to review the latest methods and definitely outline their programme among the girls' clubs. They received very material help from Miss Nita Nixon of the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, Ontario, the representative of Hon. W. J. Hanna, minister of agriculture, and lectured on practical work in canning, drying and other methods of preservation, and lectures and talks were given on methods of economy, proper food values, and means of conserving the food supply in war time.

While in Sackville, the localities in the province where clubs are formed were pointed out to these teachers, and they will visit them, spending several days with each club, sometime during the next month. It is expected that they will be able to serve about 100 localities during the campaign they have planned. The names and addresses of the teachers who have thus volunteered for the service of the country are:

Helen Jackson, 802 George street, Fredericton; Rose H. Hoffman, Chatham; Jean B. Peacock, Bayfield; Lila A. White, St. Martins; Laura B. Perley, Fredericton; Clarabel O'Brien, Moncton; Ethel E. Swanson, Douglasville; Dorris McCully, Botsford; Marion Currie, Fredericton; M. Althea When, Harecourt; Vera M. Wilson, Chatham; Marjorie F. Flewelling, Perry's Point; Margaret F. Burgess, Hampton; M. B. Gannon, St. Stephen; Kathleen Steeves, Hillsborough; Gladys Borden, Sackville.

ALONG THE RIVER
 The strawberry crop prospects are much discussed along the river. Captain Fiewelling of the Ocean was told by two growers that while two weeks ago they expected a record crop, they now expect much below the average, because of the wet weather has spoiled much of the fruit. From other growers come much more cheerful reports. A few crates were brought down in the steamer on Saturday morning. Fifty cents per box was paid for single boxes at Public Landing on Saturday. The general crop outlook up-river continues good. Yesterday was fine and warm, and just the kind of weather needed.

Passengers on the Ocean for Day's Landing on Saturday had to go off in boats, as the Ocean was unable to leave the wharf. The same thing occurred recently at Brown's Flat. One afternoon the Ocean had to get a small boat to take off passengers for Westfield, and had to carry heavy freight on up river until the boat had next morning, when an excursion steamer left the Westfield wharf. Patrons of the regular steamer are protesting against the inconvenience. Capt. Taylor has a large photograph of Indian town in 1873, taken from the river front. It shows the steamers Olive and David Weston at the wharf. The buildings are entirely different from those now in existence, and there is a distinct creek in Main street, part way up the hill. Fire destroyed the old Indian town, and also the David Weston, whose home may still be seen close in shore at Craig's Point.

Yesterday was another golden day along the river. Numerous motor boats went past the Landing, and the May Queen was crowded with excursionists en route to Brown's Flats. In the evening bonfires blazed along the shore.

It is remarked that there is a smaller number of young men in evidence this summer, so many have enlisted and gone to the front.

MUSICIANS AT FRONT
 John F. Nuttall has a letter of June 20 from his son, Jake, who wrote that he had met at the front W. E. O. Stokes, formerly of the Imperial staff; Wallace of the Gen staff; George Stephenson, A. Kelly and James Dunlop, all of them musicians. He says they had a great time, and it was just like being in St. John. "Believe me," he says, "the band was playing." The young man asks his family to keep on writing, for the men at the front are all eager to get news from home.

BODIES OF DROWNED MEN NOT RECOVERED
 Newcastle, July 16.—The bodies of Abram Patrick of Lower Neguee and Burton E. Nare of Ferryville, who were drowned early yesterday morning, coming home from Chatham to Ferryville, with Andrew and Walter McEwen, have not yet been seen in Alex. Cowie and Alex. Hutchinson, who went out in a boat, rescued the McEwens.
