

WHERE BETHLEHEM STEEL LOST MILLIONS

The photograph above shows the interior of Machine Shop No. 4, which with its valuable and intricate machinery and a number of guns in all stages of manufacture, was totally destroyed by fire of unknown origin, during the early hours of November 10, entailing a loss of several millions of dollars and the destruction of hundreds of guns and other war munitions destined for the use of the Allies and the U. S. Army and Navy. The lower picture was taken outside while the fire was raging.

BOWLING

Games on Black's Alleys

Owing to the weather and two feature bowling games scheduled to be played on Black's alleys, one the City League fixture, the Tigers vs the Specials, and the other two teams from McAvity & Sons, a record crowd of enthusiasts attended. The first game was won by the Tigers, who took three out of four points from the Specials, and the second was won by the quartette representing the wholesale department of McAvity's. The Tigers proved to be a little strong for the recruits and after recovering from the shock of losing the first string romped home with the remaining points. The box scores of the games follow:

BASEBALL

"Terry" McGovern Dead

Arthur "Terry" McGovern, the well known baseball player, died Sunday morning in Thompson Hospital from a shock sustained last August while en route to witness a baseball game in the Braves' ground, Boston. He was a South Boston boy and is survived by his mother and three brothers, Fred, Thomas and Joseph. Terry caught for the old St. John's team, and during the two seasons in which he played in this city he won a host of friends who will regret to hear of his death. After leaving St. John, he joined the New England League as a member of the Lowell team. Later he was sold to the Red Sox and usually caught George Winter. In 1906 he was sold to Montreal and later he managed the Brooklyn team of the New England League. A few years ago he joined Lynn as a first baseman and while playing that position visited this city for a series of games with the Marshalls. At the time his brother, Fred, was catching for the local team and a coincidence was that he was receiving the offerings of George Winter. After abandoning baseball McGovern opened up a billiard parlor in Lynn.

Manager Donovan's Plans

Manager Donovan of the New York Yankees will take his pitchers and catchers to the new camp in Marlin about February 15, which will do away with the expensive trip to Hot Springs, Ark. In this advance guard Donovan will have Caldwell, Flater, Cole, Sharkey, Keating, Fieb, Blodgett, Brady, McGridge, Markle, Love, Russell, Meadows, Piercy, Boss, Vance, Shooley, Tipton, Walters, Alexander, Nunnemaker and Krueger. The infielders and outfielders will report at the camp on March 1 and Donovan will limit the number of players to thirty. This means that twelve men will be turned loose during the winter.

HOPPE VS. YAMADA

New York, Nov. 12.—A match between Hoppe, the champion, and Koji Yamada, will open an 18.2 handicap billiard tournament here on Monday night. Most of the leading professional billiard players of the country will take part and the

VIOLENT ATTACKS OF DYSPEPSIA

Suffered Tortures Until She Tried "Fruit-a-tives"

St. Jean de Matha, Jan. 27th, 1914. "After suffering for a long time with Dyspepsia, I have been made well by 'Fruit-a-tives.' I suffered so much that at last I would not dare to eat for I was afraid of dying. Five years ago I received samples of 'Fruit-a-tives,' and after taking them I felt relief. Then I sent for three boxes and I kept improving until I was well. I quickly regained my lost weight and now I eat fifteen round loaves in a week. I am fully recovered, thanks to 'Fruit-a-tives.' George Slosson, 375, Yamada 375, Joseph Mayer 325, and Walter Cochran 300. Slosson is considered the dark horse of the tournament. After being out of active competition some time he has regained his old time mastery of the cue. Slosson will play Sutton Tuesday night.

RINGS

Lore and Wood to Box

Halifax Echo.—Every boxing fan in the city will be pleased to hear that the management have succeeded in matching Bay Wood and Johnny Lore to box a fifteen round bout, in the arena on next Friday night. As this will be a real big match between men of high-class the prizes will be raised to seventy-five cents and $1.50. This move has been made necessary by the demand of Wood for a heavy guarantee to box a man of the class of Lore.

Bette Outpointed Solsberg

Johnny Bette of St. Paul, claimant of the bantam weight championship, defeated Young Solsberg of New York in a ten round bout in Brooklyn last evening.

ATHLETIC

A. A. U. Convention

New York, Nov. 12.—George J. Turner of Baltimore was elected president of the Amateur Athletic Union at the annual convention here today. He succeeded Alfred J. Lill Jr., of Boston. It was regarded as very satisfactory, showing a balance of $24,105.94 on hand and a profit of $1,200.73.

YOUNG JACOBSON WILL GO SOUTH WITH GIANTS

Former St. Croix and Marathon Player Will Be Given a Try Out

New York, Nov. 12.—John McGraw, who has been taking a vacation, returned to town yesterday. He said he was not prepared to talk about the Giants for next year, except that they would report at Marlin in time to begin the usual training stunts on March 1.

McGraw will take nearly forty men to the camp. He will have a big staff of pitchers, including Mathewson, Tesreau, Ferritt, Benton, Schanz, Schuyler, Ritter, Palmer, Kramer and Herbert. The catchers will be Meyers, Wendell, Doolin, Schanz and Kocher. The infielders will comprise Merkle, Doyle, Lobert, Fletcher, Grant, Brainerd, Dyer, Carroll, Baker and Kelly, with Brien, Robertson, Thorpe, Sharnan, Jacobson, Babbington, Farrell and Harrison in the outfield.

Carroll and Baker are third basemen from Fordham College and Little Rock, respectively. Sherman hails from Portsmouth, Ohio. Jacobson played with the Brooklyn club last year, while Farrell made a fine record with the Portland, Me., club and Harrison won his spurs with the Dallas, Texas League club. McGraw believes that he has excellent material to bolster up the regulars. Mathewson will be allowed to take his own time while getting into proper condition.

AMERICAN SYMPATHY.

(Boston Transcript.)

But in the main, the Allies task west and east, remains the task of bleeding the German Empire to death by a slow process of sapping. To pay and pay and pay, and keep at it—clashes—that is the essence of the great war, for the patient Briton and Frenchman. America does not, could not, behold this spectacle without sympathy. We should have trodden blood into the snows of Valley Forge in vain, and walked indifferently through the darkest days of the Civil War, if we did not feel keenly the passage of the British nation and its colonies through this great and supreme test. We should be deaf to the call of every great sentiment that has ever inspired us—the love of liberty; the spirit of self-governing independence; the hatred of military dominance; the will to win in the world as the result by the self-directed energy and thrust of the man at the plough or at the till—if we did not feel a profound and most sympathetic emotion when we see Britain confronting this crisis bravely. There is a disposition to aid where aid is possible, and none to hamper or defeat. America will wait, and win England well.

THREE—RETURNED SOLDIERS SPEAK AT OTTAWA MEETING

(Ottawa Free Press)

Captain Dion said that he had been questioned by many of the fellows concerning life at the front, and he desired to say that "it is fine." He was not going to urge anyone to enlist, he would simply tell them what was going on. This was a matter in which it was up to every man to decide according to his conscience.

"But I will tell you that any man who does not go now—within the next few months—will regret it all his life. If it ends in a few months and you have not volunteered, the boys will be coming home, telling their stories and you will be on the outside."

Captain Dion recognized that many men had ties which they could not break to go, many were married with families, "many of you may be engaged, that is no lie." He said that during his stay at the front he was in three engagements, but he considered he had not done his share and he was going back with a Montreal regiment.

"The best that can be got. You hear references to bully beef over here. I never saw a can of bully beef all the time I was away. On the firing line at Ypres the men had hot meat served them."

"It is by no means all hardships, the good times offset the bad. I am only eager, anxious, to get back. I am crazy to go." He referred to the fight as a hunt, only after bigger game than is usually sought in these parts. "If you don't go you'll have nothing but the saddest of recollections. Now think it over and go," he concluded.

Come Back Better Man. Lieut. Taylor told of how he had been through the Red rebellion and the Boer war, but these were Wendell's beside the European struggle. He had gone because he felt he might be of "some little use."

"This is the greatest game for a young man the world has ever known," he went on. "The battlefield of Flanders is the greatest school ever established. You will come back a better and a bigger man."

"It is a shame to beg men to go to this war; it is a privilege to tell you to go, to take the chance to belong to the greatest army the world has ever known, and I make no exceptions when I say this of the Canadian army. The pay was good and the hardships few. With due caution, due care, there is no reason why a man should not come back from this war. The casualties are comparatively few." Again he said: "There is no danger of the Germans winning, but if they do you might just as well go home and kill all your women folk and bury them."

Sergt. Wells delivered a very entertaining little address on experiences at the front. Although he has only one arm left—the right—he is going back if he has to go as an interpreter and pay his own way.

"CLEARING HOUSE" IN MONTREAL FOR OPIUM

Drug to Value of $25,000 Seized During the Year From Celestials, Who Get it From Europe

Montreal, Nov. 15.—With a raid on the freighter "Telemaque," the arrest of three Chinese stokers, and the seizure of opium valued at $5,000, police here are another attack on the organized opium ring operating through the port of Montreal.

Since the opening of navigation $25,000 worth of the drug has been seized on ships. Police and customs men declare there is a big Chinese opium delivery office in Liverpool, its North American ends being at Montreal and Boston. The removal of so many British sailors from the ships and the substitution of Chinese and Laskars, aids the success of the plotters. Fines have run as high as $500 and six months in jail, but the business goes on and customs people are positive that Montreal is the big clearing house for opium smuggling in Canada.
