Detroit Shuts Out American League Leaders

Cleveland Is Dropping

Red Sox Only Ten Points Behind League Leaders; Cincinnati Again Defeats Braves

Detroit put a crimp in the Yankees' winning streak by shutting them out. It took their veteran pitcher Mitchell to do the trick.

Cleveland is dropping and is only a few points behind the leaders. It looks like a fight among the Yankees, White Sox and Red Sox for the pennant.

In the National League, Cincinnati again defeated the Braves. The latter seem to lack the necessary punch to win a pennant.

Pittsburgh-Philadelphia, wet grounds. Tinker is due for a suspension as a result of his action in yesterday's game. In addition to having the game forfeited, he will in all probability be banished for a short period by President Denny.

The news that Christy Mathewson is to manage the Cincinnati Reds has caused quite a sensation among baseball fans. Big Six has made a name for himself, which will go down in the annals of baseball history. The injury to his spine may force him to retire from active participation in the game, but his great baseball brains should prove invaluable to the club. It will be recalled that in 1915 Herzog was sold to Cincinnati by the president of the Reds, while Manager McGraw was on a world's tour with the Chicago White Sox. When he arrived home he protested against the deal and put the loss of the pennant in 1915 down to the absence of Buck.
