Question is Raised Why All Suspended Athletes Are Not Taken Back

IT is expected that an awful squawk will go up from athletes in the Maritime Provinces outside the "Simon pure" ranks when the result of the action taken by the National Registration Committee of the Amateur Athletic Union, when 21 athletes were reinstated here on Saturday, becomes generally known.

Already some of the local sportsmen have been asking why the committee didn't take all suspended players back into the fold, while it was about it. The railroading through of the reinstatement of 21 men, who, sup-posedly, had been suspended for good cause, in one morning was said to be unprecedented and those whose names were omitted from the list have good cause to complain.

No doubt, the national body, in an effort to provide harmony in the Maritime Provinces, put through all recom-GRAND FALLS USED ful if such action will bring about the desired result and those clubs which failed to get their outlawed players aboard the band wagon will be as disjuncted as ever.
