Defence in West Side Case in
County Court Based Upon
Alibi

After being out only five minutes, a jury this morning returned a verdict of "not guilty" in the case of the Crown against Arthur Cairns, charged before Judge Barry in the County Court with highway robbery with violence against Mrs. Ida Drekin on Saturday night, October 10. The defence based its case on an alibi. C. H. Ferguson appeared for the Crown and G. E. Logan for the prisoner. After evidence was completed and the charges of counsel and judges had been completed the jury retired at 12:45 o'clock, and returned five minutes later with a verdict of "not guilty." Judge Barry released Cairns from custody.

This case arose out of an incident reported from the vicinity of the Martello Tower.

Court adjourned until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock when the trial matters on the docket will be dealt with.

PONTIFF HONORS BELGIUM'S QUEEN

Golden Rose, Highest Award to Catholic Sovereign, Goes to Elizabeth

British United Press.
ROME, Nov. 10.—The Pope has chosen Queen Elizabeth of Belgium to receive the Golden Rose, the greatest gift which the Pontiff can bestow on a Catholic Sovereign. The high honor to the Belgian Queen was made known today when Pope Pius delegated Papal Munifico Micara to present the decoration to Elizabeth when the royal couple should return from their voyage to India. The presentation will be made on the King's and Queen's twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The golden rose is the finest work of the goldsmith's art, consisting of one hundred leaves of pure gold, elaborately engraved. It rests in a silver vase. The Pope rarely bestows the golden rose. The last time he did so was to honor Belgium in that way. Queen Maria was the recipient. Pius X did not bestow a single rose. The last award was by Pius XI to Queen Elizabeth of Spain.

VISITED FLORIDA

Thos. Gossnell of Saint John Tells of Real Estate Boom

Thomas Gossnell of Harrison street, North End, arrived home today after a five months absence. In that period he visited the boom state of Florida, just to see what all the excitement was about. He found that while the real estate furore was on the point of becoming stabilized, the building of homes, erection of traffic bridges and other necessary extensions were on in full blast. There was a great influx of people into Florida and it was generally expected the place would be overrun with speculators of all kinds, including a vast percentage of private folks.

Mr. Gossnell journeyed home leisurely and took time before making the last leg of his trip east to do some big game hunting in the upper part of the province. He had a great time. Tommy is well-known as the G. W. Vets' catcher in former seasons. He is a St. Francis Xavier graduate.

"We Got More Than It's Worth"

He was an accountant and knew a thing or two about figures.

"What a marvellous Dining Suite!" exclaimed the guests. "You must have got it at Marcus"—and I'll bet the firm gave you a raise to afford one like that."

"No raise at all, worse luck," replied the host. "But we traded in our old suite. That was all we had to pay down—and a year to take care of the rest."

"We were hoping to have a new suite, but not so soon. I had it all worked out how much the old one was worth to us and what we could get for it. The Marcus people actually gave us more than our estimate. And no firm in town could quote a price on the new suite so low as this fresh suite."
