

DIDN'T WANT TO EAT

Had Severe Stomach Trouble—Is All Right Now.

Experts declare that much of the dyspepsia and loss of appetite so common in this country is due to the use of preservatives in foods. But much more likely it is on account of hasty and careless habits of eating.

Our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, Vinol, has restored appetite and digestion to thousands of people who had despaired of ever being able to enjoy a meal again.

Fred. Oberlander, of Schenectady, N. Y., says: "I had stomach trouble for two years, and they were years of terrible suffering. I did not want to eat, and what I did eat gave me pain. My health ran down, too. Since I have used Vinol my stomach trouble has vanished, I eat heartily, and never felt better in my life."

If you are run down and weak, cannot eat or digest your food, you need Vinol. It will do you great good. You can have your money back if Vinol does not do all we claim. Wasson's 100 King Street.

AIRSHIP RACE HALF WAY AROUND GLOBE

Paris, May 9.—The Main publishes the regulations of the Peking-Paris airship race. It is open to pilots of all nationalities, who possess an international pilot license. Each aviator must use a French-made aeroplane. The start will take place in Peking on September 1. The prizes are:

First—$50,000; second, $5,000; the remaining three, $2,000. The race will take place only if at least five entries have been received before June 26.

Control stations will be established at the following towns: Peking, Urga, Irkutsk, Omsk, Kazan, Moscow, Warsaw, Vienna, Trieste, Genoa, Avignon, Dijon, Paris. At each of these stations the competitors will have to descend, have their clocks vied and sign a control register.

SPRING TONICS REAL AND UNREAL

To get the blood pure is a problem which nearly everybody has to face in the springtime. The quicker the poisons are swept from the blood the less suffering there will be from pain, aches and rheumatism.

The liver and kidneys filter poisons from the blood, and you can very materially help them by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

There is no way to purify the blood except through the activity of these two filtering organs. Because they are prompt in awakening the action of the liver and kidneys, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the greatest of blood purifiers.

You need not have the tired, languid feelings which make life a burden to so many people if you use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Backache, headache, biliousness, indigestion and constipation disappear when this great medicine is used.

NICE RAID THIS ON CREDIT OF THE PROVINCE

Guaranteed Bonds of Road About Which They Lacked Information

I. K. PINDER'S SPUR

Thirteen-mile Long Branch Backed by Flemming Government To Extent of $30,000—See Their Answers to Mr. Upham's Queries

Fredericton, May 9.—There has been no greater raid upon the provincial credit than the bonding of the Southampton Railway. This is a railway in the county of York from Temperance Vale to Milford on the C. P. R. line and is only thirteen miles long. It was promoted by J. K. Pinder, M. P. P., for York who when elected was promised a portfolio. He did not get the place in the government but instead succeeded in foisting upon the province a scheme that will cost future generations $130,000 which is the amount the bonds of this railway are guaranteed for. The interest will be $5,200 a year and the C. P. R. has leased the road as a small feeder to its branch line. If the 40 per cent, remaining after the C. P. R. gets its share does not pay the $5,200 the province must step forward and pay the difference. That is what a bond guarantee means.

It seems that Mr. Pinder had done some work on the railway and needed some cash to go on. So he applied for the government to guarantee a part of his bonds, only $50,000 worth, it is true, but most people would say that was a considerable sum.

Now see what happened. The government guaranteed the bonds March 28 and three days later, April 1, George Upham, M. P. P., for Carleton, asked some interesting questions, trying to find out whether the province had used due caution in the transactions.

Note the questions and answers: "1. Has the government guaranteed any bonds for the Southampton Railway and if so to what amount?"

Ans. Yes, to the amount of $50,000.

2. When were such bonds guaranteed?"

Ans. March 28.

3. What engineer reported on the said railway for the government?"

Ans. A. R. Wetmore, chief engineer of the public works department.

4. What was the cost of building such railway per mile?"

Ans. $130,000.

Ans. The government has not the information.

5. What class of rails were used in the construction of such railway, and what is the weight per yard of such rails?"

Ans. The government has not the information.

6. Were such rails new or second hand rails?"

Ans. The government has not the information.

7. Is the government in possession of information as to from whom the rails were purchased and what price was paid for same, and if so who were the vendors of the rails and what was the price?"

Ans. The government has not the information.

8. Has the government knowledge as to whether all wages in the construction of the road have been paid?"

Ans. Did the government take a mortgage of the road before guaranteeing the bonds and has the mortgage been recorded in York county records?"

Ans. Yes.

It will be seen that while the provincial engineer examined and reported upon Mr. Pinder's railway, the government could not have been enlightened very much because they did not even know what the railway cost per mile.

What will business men think of a government guaranteeing bonds for a railway the cost of which it does not know? What class of rails or whether they were new or second hand? No information.

What did they cost and were the wages all paid? No information.

And yet the province took a mortgage upon this property.

What a business-like administration!

HAVE YOU A SKIN RASH?

Zam-Buk Will End It

For skin rashes, eruptions, eczema, etc., either in adults or children, there is nothing known to science which equals Zam-Buk in the quickness and certainty of its curative power. Mr. Raymond Weber, of Allanburg, Ont., writes: "I have tried Zam-Buk for many ailments, and every time have found it successful. Some time ago I had a bad rash all over my body. I tried home-made salves, herb salves, and various home-made preparations, and these proved of no use, but when I tried Zam-Buk I was cured in a quarter of the time that I had been experimenting in vain with other preparations."

"On another occasion I had one of my fingers crushed, and in that case also Zam-Buk was the only remedy I used. It healed the wound splendidly."

"My boy had boils, and once again Zam-Buk brought about a complete cure. We have also used it as a household balm, for the injuries and skin diseases which are common to every person, and can say that in our experience there is nothing to equal Zam-Buk."

Zam-Buk owes its unique healing power to certain herbal extracts it contains. Unlike most ointments it contains no poisonous coloring matter, no animal fat, but is purely herbal. For eczema, piles, blood poison, abscesses, ulcers, cuts, burns, and all skin injuries and diseases it is without equal and should be in every home. 50c. box, all druggists and stores. Use also Zam-Buk Soap, 25c. tablet.

THREE CENT PIECE IN UNITED STATES

Half Cent Will Also Be Added to Denominations of Coinage

Washington, May 9.—Psychology and bargain hunting scored jointly in the house when the coinage of a three-cent piece and a one-half cent piece was authorized by unanimous vote. The report accompanying the bill from the committee on coinage, weights and measures said:—

Their coinage is urged to encourage economic buying, both directly, by affording the means of making smaller change, and indirectly, by the psychological effect produced by the existence of smaller coins.

The house approved of the committee amendment, which struck from the bill that clause which stipulated that the new three-cent piece "shall have a perforation in the center." An imitation of Chinese money found no friends on the floor.

WHAT RIGHT METHODS OF FARMING HAVE DONE

(St. Andrew's Beacon.)

We don't believe in "knocking" the maritime farmer. It isn't all sunshine and silver with him, although prices of farm produce may be soaring. But we do think that the farmer of today who closes his eyes to the teachings of science with relation to agriculture, is not a good farmer.

There is probably no population in the world that makes a closer study of practical scientific farming than that of Denmark, and the result is seen in what that little kingdom has been able to accomplish in the way of agricultural development.

That equally good results can be procured by the Danish farmer outside his own land is shown by the following statement from the pen of Rev. J. A. Mac-Glashen, of Bridgeport, N. S. Writing upon the subject of agriculture in the New Glasgow Chronicle, he says:

"I have a Danish neighbor who has made a garden in one of the bleakest spots on Cape Breton coast. Six years ago he bought for a trifling four and a half acres of bare bluff facing Lunenburg Bay. Today it is worth, including a fine nursery plants $15,000. As one item he has sold 40,000 cabbages this year, one of which weighed twenty pounds green fifteen feet from the cliff. Last spring he bought a waste wild piece of land, half-way to Sydney, for $200. He put an English farmer in charge and from the five acres tilled he sold, last summer, vegetables that netted $1,427. He got an average of $1 per bushel for his potatoes, and he says he could have sold 4,000 bushels instead of 400. And other home-bouts are catching the contagion, and gardens are appearing where once was waste and wild. The fault, therefore, is not in our stars or in our soil, but in ourselves, if we are undelighted."

SHORTENED HIS TOLL

"Do you always keep scuffling about your daily duties?" "Yes; I look generally all the time. Then I ain't asked to do no extra work."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Made Him Wonder

For some hours the husband had not in deep thought.

At last the fond wife speaks.

"What in the world is on your mind?"

"I have just been wondering," he explains. "Just wondering."

"Wondering? About what?"

"Well, no sooner were we married than you induced me to stop smoking, swearing and taking an occasional nip. Then you got me to stop reading light literature.

Then you made me realize my taste in music was low, and started me to symphony concerts instead of to common band ones. Then you got me to throw away all the pictures I had accumulated in my bachelor days. Then you had me go to a new tailor, and you bought my shirts and collars and ties yourself, so that they would not be the kind I had always worn. Then you made me grow a moustache, and you made me have my hair cut differently. And one by one you weaned me away from my old friends and had me cultivating new ones. Also you stopped my regular custom of spending every other Sunday with some of my relatives until now I am on the merest speaking terms with my family. Also, through your suggestions, I have dropped cards, billiards, and stopped chess, abandoned my usual fishing trips, cut out the football games, musical comedies, and all that sort of thing. So I have just been wondering."

"Been wondering what, Harold?"

"Wondering, if I was so thoroughly unsatisfactory in all those respects, what in the name of all that's human you found in me to love enough to marry me."
