LIFE INSURANCE

MEN MEETING HERE

Metropolitan Heads and Agents Have Luncheon at Bond's

The representatives of the Metropolitan Insurance Company in the Maritime Provinces are meeting in St. John today for their annual convention. The gathering is also attended by representatives from the head office in New York and the provincial medical examiners. The representatives of the company and their guests met at noon today in Bond's restaurant for lunch. An elaborate luncheon was served and souvenirs of the occasion were provided in the form of tasteful menu cards which also contained the names of those present. After lunch speeches were made by the guests and some of the officers and the convention then settled down to the business session at which practical addresses on insurance work were delivered by the visiting officials.

The invited guests at the luncheon included H. C. Schofield, president of the Board of Trade; Thos. B. Blair, manager Royal Bank of Canada; J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., city recorder; Senator John V. Ellis; Allan H. Watson, former superintendent of the St. John district and Commissioner R. W. Wigmore.

The chief officers of the company present at the convention include Haley Fiske, vice-president; F. O. Ayres, four vice-president; Dr. Augustus Knight, medical director; Wm. J. Tully, general solicitor; Walter Stahler, chief agent for New York; Col. John Tilton, chief agent for Canada; A. G. B. Chisholm, C. C. counsel and chief agent for Province of Quebec. BORDEN'S POLICY?

Montreal, Sept. 26—According to a Winnipeg dispatch to the Herald, Sir Rodman Borden last night gave a definite statement as to Borden's naval policy. He said:

"I know Mr. Borden has pledged himself to provide funds for one or two dreadnoughts to be constructed at earliest possible moment and placed at the disposal of the British admiralty, and this pledge

would have to be fulfilled."
