Tributed to the gift which has been presented to me.

The thought of the affectionate impulse which prompted it, has, I can assure you, deeply touched me.

The beautiful insignia of the garter, and the pictures of the king and my son which well form the personal part of the gift, will be treasured by me throughout my life, and will be handed down as precious heirlooms to those who come after.

I look forward with special satisfaction to devoting the remainder of this noble present to a charitable object in which I me.

meeting along with a report by a joint committee of the common and county councils, who have had the matter in hand.

Although the figures are not official, it was said this morning by a prominent citizen closely in touch with civic matters, that the cost of the projected building would be about $800,000$. It would be three or four stories in height, and would contain the offices of all officials connected with the governing of the city and county, as well as provide apartments for the courts. The site said to be favored in in King street east.

BANK MANAGER, IS DEAD IN NEW GLASGOW

ABOUT THE TAXES.

This was the last day for the payment of the city taxes, and there was the usual rush of late comers. The numbers, however, were not so great as had been expected, as the heaviest rush came mostly during the last few days. Chamberlain Lingley said today that the amount of taxes collected up to today was at least as large, if not greater than for the same period last year.

News of the death of Mrs. Eleanor Gray, wife of Charles A. Gray, bank manager. came as, a shock to many in this city today. She died last night in New Glasgow, N. S., where she and her husband were spending a vacation.

Mr. Gray was for about two years manager of the Union Bank of Halifax here, but went to Montreal some time ago, when the bank was merged with the Royal Bank of Canada he became manager of the latter's branch in Hamilton, Ont.

During the first week in June, Mrs.

A BOLD DEFI.

There is an aggregation of baseball players among the car conductors and motormen of the St. John Railway Company, who are impressed with the idea that they can play ball, with gentle emphasis on the "can," and they issue a challenge through this paper to the sphere tossers of the Royal Hotel against whom they would like to be ranged next week. The car men are captained by Conductor Fred Waye, and they are said to be a veritable host of sluggers.

CHANCERY COURT.

The case of Hanington vs. Melick and others, occupied the attention of His Honor Mr. Justice McLeod in the chancery court this morning. This is a partition suit. The land involved is in Kings Ward, one lot now occupied by Wilcox Bros, and the other by Cowie & Edwards. M. G. Teed, K. C. and C. S. Hanington appear for the plaintiff, and J. R. Armstrong, K. C., J. King Kelley, S. A. M. Skinner and B. S. Smith for the defendants.

Miss Mabel Driscoll and William Shar key to Be Married in Calgary

COUNCIL NEXT WEEK

Miss Mabel F. Driscoll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Driscoll, left last evening for Calgary, where she will be married to Wiliam Sharkey on Monday next. The groom is a son of Peter C. Sharkey, of this city, and is in the employ of the McClary Co. in Calgary. He was formerly employed at the branch here, but was transferred west about a year ago. A large number of friends were at the depot last evening to say good-bye and to wish Miss Driscoll much happiness. Miss Driscoll took with her many handsome presents received from friends and relatives in this city. She was very popular in the city, and will be missed by a large circle of friends.
