HERE'S THE RECORD OF THE FILING OF DEED OF G. T. P. PROPERTY

Copy From Registrar's Files Should Silence Finally The Silly Statements of Standard That Land for Terminals at Courtenay Bay Has Not Been Secured

At the office of J. V. McLellan, registrar of deeds, King street east, this morning, a Times reporter was shown the registration of the transaction by which the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company claims into possession of the lands and riparian privileges at Courtenay Bay, on which they propose to erect their terminals. The deed was signed on April 9, 1910, is numbered 8325, and states that for a consideration of the lands in question past from the ownership of Thomas Gilbert, et al, and into the control of the Grand Trunk Pacific Development Company, which, as explained in a message from Wm. Wainwright, vice-president of the road, is subsidiary to the G. T. P. Railway Company.

In the record the "G. T. P. Development Co." is mentioned as being "duly incorporated," and the purpose of the transfer is that they gain possession "to have and to hold the said lands and premises and all rights, title, and interest of the said parties hereto of the first part therein with the appurtenances unto the said company, its successors and assigns to, and for the use of the said company, its successors and assigns forever."

The "parties of the first part" are mentioned as follows: Thomas Gilbert, Marion Jean Gilbert, J. S. Gilbert, Elizabeth Wilson, and Elizabeth Wilson, trustees under last will and testament of Bradford S. Gilbert. Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of J. Roy Campbell.

The date of registration is given as April 29, 1910.

POLICE COURT

A Carleton Case—Judge Comments on Park Matter—Three Seamen Willing to go; Two Not

In the police court this morning, Edward Donovan was fined $8 or thirty days in jail on the charge of drunkenness, while John Mullin and Edward Speight were remanded on a like charge.

Arthur Craft, charged with assaulting Isaac Craig, and also with breaking windows in the latter's house in Market Place, West End, pleaded guilty to the charges. The plaintiff testified that Craft had hit him twice on the head while he was standing in his yard. The defendant and his wife and daughter gave evidence and placed the blame on Craig. The case was adjourned until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in order that more witnesses might be secured. Daniel Mullin, K. C., appeared for the defendant.

The names of a man and woman reported to have been arrested in Rockwood Park on Saturday afternoon did not appear on the police sheet this morning, and the court made some comment on the matter, saying that all persons arrested should be brought before the court.

Five sailors—Samuel Westcott, Richard Tapp, Andrew Jensen, Percy Richards, and Henry Kennedy—arrested some time ago for refusing duty on the S. S. Nortco, were again brought into court this morning. Westcott, Jensen and Kennedy agreed to go to sea again and will be allowed to go this afternoon. Tapp and Richards refused to go to England in the steamer and were sent back to jail.

BIG RALLY IN OPERA HOUSE

Tonight Will See Liberal Campaign Brought Near to Close—Some Things to Bear in Mind

The beacon fires are alight. Every ward in the city of St. John and every district in the county is well manned with Liberal stalwarts for the fight on Thursday.

After tonight but two days intervene between the tossing of ballots that will bring a new era of prosperity to this twin consistency of St. John.

The fight is rifting strong in Liberal interest. Sound, sensible argument, statements of responsible ministers, impartial engineers, and the Canadian Pacific Railway's vice president, have made the pitiful and absolute regime of the Conservative speakers and writers stand badly in contrast.

On the Tory side we have a dragging of the beloved national ambitions in the mire of political controversy; pages of factory-made "boiler-plate" campaign material, a pessimistic foreboding of the future, and a future and a foolish, if not insulting, assertion that mutual exchange of natural products is a direct road to annexation.

On the other hand we have a minister of the crown giving explicit statement of fact concerning the expenditure of millions on this port; these statements backed up by wholly impartial engineers who are now at work on the site of the works. We have the consideration of a trade agreement that will mean cheaper living for everybody; a bigger market for the farmer and a sure and safe means of removing numerous decadent and dormant industries.

The thinking man, the citizen who prides himself on being able to do his own judging and not be led about by party managers, who have all sorts of axes to grind, has got this comparison of arguments stored safely away in his mind, and will mark his ballot for a better and bigger St. John on Thursday. Conservatives of a lifetime are going to do it—ever if only for this once—and the British justice contained in the secret Australian ballot system protects him in exercising his franchise to suit his inmost opinions.

Tonight in the Opera House there will be a magnificent Liberal review. The candidates, Hon. William Pugsley, Minister of Public Works, and his colleague, James Lowell, M. P. P., the laboring man's champion—will be on hand to give their final word to the rank and file of the party.

There will be other speakers among them Charles McDonald, an employer of much labor in this city, and Dr. H. Lemery, one of the vigorous army of young citizens who are ranging themselves with "The St. John Party" in this fight.

This meeting will be attended by large numbers. Much of importance is going to be said. The issues will be discussed without any flag-waving or kindergarten exercises. Be early for seats will be at a premium.

REPORTED ARREST IN THE PARK DENIED

There seems to be great mystery in police circles in connection with the supposed arrest of a man and woman in Rockwood Park on Saturday afternoon. One of the morning papers printed a story that a young man had been arrested in the park in company with a woman and that the two were taken through the streets handcuffed and lodged in jail. After being kept in custody they were supposed to have been released because there was no evidence against them.

When asked about the matter this morning the police officials said they knew nothing whatever concerning the affair. Policeman McLellan, who was supposed to have made the arrest, said that there was nothing in the story at all and that he had had occasion to use the handcuffs on anybody. Judge Ritchie made similar comment on the matter in the police court this morning, and said that it had been brought to his attention by several citizens.

A "stand-pat" platform gets nowhere. Reciprocity means advancement.
