TO COLLECT BUSINESS LAWS.

U. S. Commerce Department Plans Survey of All Foreign Commercial Statutes.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The Department of Commerce has announced plans for a worldwide survey of the commercial laws of foreign countries on a scale greater than has been attempted heretofore by a government agency. A. J. Wolfe, recently appointed chief of the Division of Commercial Laws of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, will be in New York City from Sept. 15 to 18 to confer with lawyers and business men interested in aiding the undertaking. Questionnaires will be sent to legal authorities throughout the world. The information received in replies will be edited and prepared in the form of special booklets as follows:—
1. "Doing business under foreign laws," with full particulars as to the operations of foreign branches of American firms organizing companies under foreign charters, taxation, etc.
2. "Agency laws of the world," with proper forms for powers of attorney.
3. "Banking laws of the world."
4. "Negotiable instruments throughout the world."
5. "Sales, contracts and foreign laws."
6. "Commercial disputes before foreign courts."
The aim of the investigation is to place at the disposal of American business men and his counsel full information on the principles of foreign commercial laws.

LOCAL NEWS

A Sunday school in connection with the church at Silver Falls was opened on Sunday.

A caucus of leading members of the provincial Conservative party was held here yesterday afternoon in the Seamen's institute when matters of organization in connection with the coming federal election were discussed. No announcement was made as to the choice of candidates, pending the calling of a nomination convention.

At a conference of representatives of the shipping companies, held in Montreal last week, preparations were made for the drawing up of a scale of wages for longshore work at this port during the coming winter. The companies offer would propose a considerable reduction from the scale of seventy cents an hour for general cargo and eighty cents an hour for grain. There had been a considerable reduction in the scale of wages at Montreal during the summer.

Three Halifax Men.
Ottawa, Sept. 13.—(Canadian Press).—The department of naval services has announced that twenty-five candidates were examined in radio telegraphy during August, and fourteen secured certificates of proficiency. Among those securing first class certificates were: W. T. Bartlett, J. L. Butler and J. P. Petch of Halifax.
