

Brantford Young Ladies' College.

(In connection with the Presbyterian church in Canada.)

The College provides for the Higher Education of Women under the best possible advantages in point of :

1. Location and grounds,
2. Health,
3. Culture and refinements
4. Moral and religious influences.

Three departments thoroughly equipped and under the charge of practical and experienced teachers.

I. LITERARY.

No pupil teachers entrusted with the work of education done in this college. From the methods of teaching pursued, plan of study and class discipline, earnest and systematic habits of study are formed. The college course conforms to the Toronto University curriculum. University examinations held in the college. At the examinations held 1884 and 1885, five first-class and nineteen second-class honors were obtained.

II. ART.

The department is in affiliation with the Ontario School of Art. It not only affords instruction in the various branches of Industrial Art, but provides skilled instruction in the Fine Arts, Embracing Crayon, Water Colors, Oil Painting and painting on Pottery and China.

III. MUSIC.

Special terms to ladies who wish to devote their whole attention to music. Unequaled advantages on the organ, piano, violin and in voice culture.

Diplomas will be conferred on the completion of the full course prescribed. Terms reasonable for the first-class advantages offered.

T. M. MACINTYRE M.A.L.L.B.

Principal.

GUR

STAN

Have taken f
Provincial Exhibi

Prizes taken

Scotia.

Hay, Cattle, C

er Scales.

None genuine repaired.

Send for catalo

GU

Hamilton