To Motor Boat Owners

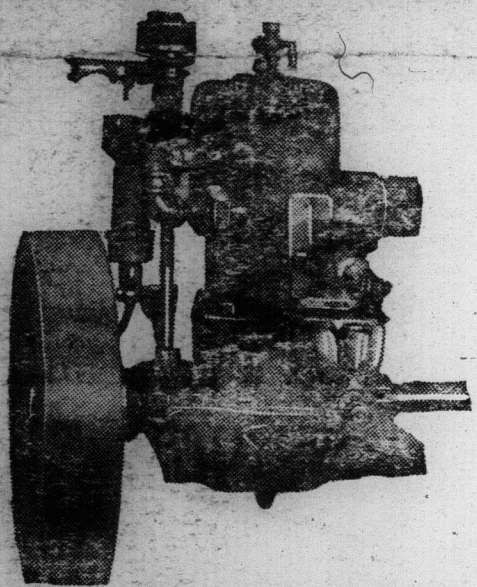

SPECIAL NOTICE

The undersigned, who holds Newfoundland Patent No. 209 on COVERS FOR MOTOR BOATS AND OTHER BOATS, is now prepared to license the use of same to fishermen and others requiring it. This covering can be put on a Boat in about two or three minutes and removed in less time. When on Boat no water can enter it, not even rain, except a small space at stern reserved for steersman.

All its attachments are specially adapted so they will not interfere in any way with twine hauling or any other work a boat might be used for. The covering can be made by any Motor Boat owner.

A salesman will be on the road shortly with a model showing how covering is made and worked, from whom a license can be obtained for its use. This man will also visit the Northern Districts soon as navigation opens. For further particulars as to cost, etc., write or call on

BAY ROBERTS, FRIDAY, July 28, 1916.

They Died For Us We Live For Them

When the great allied offensive started on the first of July, with the First Newfoundland Regiment well in the forefront of the hottest battle, our gallant boys, by their bravery, dash and coolness, made a name for themselves that won words of highest praise from the commander-in-chief of His Majesty's forces, the admiration of the nation, and filled our hearts with just pride.

When the news of their grand achievements reached us here in our sea-girt home, where each and all of those brave fellows are bound to us by ties of blood, relationship or individual friendship, we felt, in a greater degree than ever before, proud of the land that gave us birth.

When the terrible casualty list was announced, that told of the frightful mortality amongst the officers of the regiment, and the great number of wounded in the rank and file, our hearts overflowed with sympathy for those who mourned the loved ones lying in "a soldier's grave," while our prayers ascended to the Throne of Grace in ceaseless intercession for the comfort and relief of the wounded.

And now, after many days of waiting and suspense, when the ever-increasing list of those who have made the supreme sacrifice is coming to us in its unvarnished plainness, how should we act? We should honor our heroic and hallowed dead. They fought the good fight for us. They died that we might live and the down-trodden and oppressed be delivered from the heel of the tyrant. Their sacrifice must not be made in vain.

Many of them have left father, mother, sisters and brothers, and some, perhaps, a wife and little children to mourn for them. When the first agonizing pangs of grief have passed away, the mourners will point with righteous pride to the fame and glory their sons, brothers, husbands or fathers achieved. But now their heads are bowed with woe, and their hearts torn with sorrow, because they will see those they nurtured and loved, even better than life itself, "no more, till the sea gives up its dead."

Our duty is plain before us. Let us, one and all, visit, comfort, sympathize with and pray for those who mourn their loved ones. Sympathy with our fellow-men is a bond of love, and true love is the peace of God, which alone can heal the wounded and broken heart.

For the Cot Fund

The committee in charge of the fund to provide cots for our wounded soldiers, held a meeting in the Public Building on Saturday night last to finalize arrangements for making a house to house collection. On Monday morning some of the collectors started work in their various wards and, we learn, the response has been fairly generous for the season of the year and the conditions existing. The members of the committee are enthusiastic, and the collectors are very solicitous in their endeavors to swell the fund to the largest proportions possible. It, thus, only remains for those who intend to contribute (and we do not anticipate any slackers) to dig down deep into their pockets, as the largest coin, like the largest fish, is generally found nearest the bottom, to raise a sum of which Bay Roberts and vicinity may well be proud. Dig, fellow citizens, dig!

Max Mercer Killed in Action

Bay Roberts is again called upon to mourn the loss of one of her most popular and favorite sons in the person of James Maxwell Mercer, the sad news having been received by his parents on Wednesday evening last that he had been "Killed in Action" on the 1st of July.

Max, by which name he was familiarly known, was the youngest child and son of Mr. Isaac and Mrs. Anastasia Mercer, and but 19 years of age. He enlisted in the Newfoundland Regiment in April, 1915, left St. John's for England, in June, and was sent to the front in February of this year. He was attached to the signal corps.

As in the other cases, no particulars as to how he met death have been received, but we know he died gloriously in the brilliant charge of our regiment on that memorable 1st of July.

He leaves, besides a father and mother, two brothers and three sisters to mourn the loss of a loving son and brother, to whom the heartfelt sympathy of all will go out in large measure, and in which the Guardian is not the least sincere.

Appreciation

For the information of our readers and to show both those who solicit and those who contribute how deeply their untiring and self-sacrificing efforts are appreciated, we append the following letter which speaks for itself:

Judges Chambers, Supreme Court, St. John's, Nfld., July 24th, 1916.

Dear Mr. Jardine:—Please convey to the people of Bay Roberts and vicinity the thanks of the St. Johns Ambulance Association, for what they have done and are doing in response to our appeal for hospital beds.

Yours sincerely,
W. H. Horwood.

John Jardine, Esq., Bay Roberts.

Rev. S. Bennett Takes Up Duties

Rev. Sidney Bennett, the new pastor of the Bay Roberts and Spaniard's Bay Meth. Circuit, occupied the pulpits of the various churches on Sunday, July 23rd.

In the evening at Central Church Mr. Bennett preached a most impressive sermon from the text found in St. John's Gospel 12: 21, "We would see Jesus."

After dealing with the text in a very able manner, the preacher concluded by referring to the people of our own community. He said: There are men and women in the town of Bay Roberts who carry burdens too heavy to be borne. I want to help such. At the present time we are strangers to one another. I hope we will no be strangers long. I want to be one of yourselves. I want to get into your very lives in order that I may be able to help you bear your burdens. I want to show you the Christ. I want to draw you to Christ. Oh, that God may help me to carry Christ into your lives.

Mr. Bennett left a very favorable impression upon the members of the various congregations on this circuit.

Death of Mr. E. M. Jackman

Mr. E. M. Jackman, of St. John's, well known in political and business circles, died at the Homeopathic Hospital, Montreal, Thursday, July 20th. Deceased was born in St. John's Feb. 29, 1868, and was thus 47 years of age at the time of his demise. He learned the tailoring trade in Boston, Mass., and in 1899 started business in St. John's and built up a large trade.

In 1900 he went into politics with the Liberal Party, was elected for Piacentia and St. Mary's, and given a seat in the Executive as Minister of Finance. He was re-elected for a second time, and held the same office until 1909 when the Bond Ministry was defeated. He was a member of, and held prominent positions in, various societies of St. John's. He leaves a widow, five sons and one daughter, besides a mother to mourn their loss. One of his sons, Edward, is with the Canadian regiment at the front, and another, George, a member of "Ours," is in hospital at Liverpool, having been wounded in the battle of the first of July. The body was brought home for interment and the funeral took place at St. John's yesterday.

GET RID OF HUMORS AND AVOID SICKNESS

Humors in the blood cause internal derangements that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils and other eruptions, and are responsible for the readiness with which many people contract disease. For forty years Hood's Sarsaparilla has been more successful than any other medicine in expelling humors and removing their inward and outward effects. Get Hood's. No other medicine acts like it.

Garden Party

While the Patriotic Garden Party, given by the Women's Patriotic Association on Wednesday afternoon, proved to be a very successful affair, it would have been much more enjoyable but for the fact that Jupiter-Pluvius, who seems to frown on Wednesday as a holiday, used his sprinkling can rather freely, to the great discomfort of the assembled guests. The attendance was good, and the provision ample, the one great drawback being the rain which, at tea time, came down in torrents and necessitated a retreat to nearby houses and a final adjournment to the Public Building. Notwithstanding the disagreeable conditions, the handsome sum of $96 was realized.

The President, on behalf of the Association, wishes to thank Dr. McLeod for allowing the use of his grounds, all those who helped in any way to make the party a success, the citizens for attending in such large numbers, and little Miss Doris Mercer who presented her with a beautiful bouquet of flowers. Special thanks are given to Miss Gertie McLeod and Kitty Fraser, who presided at and practically supplied the candy table.

Missing—Dead

Private William Barrett, son of Wm. John Barrett, of French's Cove, is still officially reported missing by both the Canadian and British authorities.

Meantime, his brother, John Barrett, who is also with the Canadian Expeditionary Force, in writing to his brother Joseph, on June 30th states that his brother William was killed in action about the first week in June. Continuing, his brother said: "He was ready to die at any time, and that is a great thing. I never saw a happier man in my life. He did not fear death because he was a soldier for God, King and Country."

Will Support Three Beds

The Western Union Cable Staff of Bay Roberts has decided to support three beds for our wounded soldiers at the front.

NEWS IN A LINE

Mrs. Arthur Snow went to Cupids on Saturday morning last to visit her relatives.

The Sicilian, with Companies A and B of the Third Battalion on board, including a number of Bay Roberts boys, arrived at Liverpool at 9.30 p. m. on Wednesday.

Mr. W. B. Fraser, of St. John's, brother of Mr. D. G. and Miss Fraser, of this town, spent the week end in Bay Roberts. Mrs. Fraser and children are making an extended visit to Bay Roberts.

Revs. Geo. L. Mercer, R. H. Mercer and Isaac French, who were here on a brief visit to friends, returned to their respective circuits recently. Revs. R. H. and Geo. Mercer occupied the pulpits of Central Methodist Church on two successive Sundays.

The following five young ladies, Misses Forsey, Herder, Atwell, Saunders and Greenland, left St. John's by the S. S. Stephano on Saturday last to serve as Nurses at the front. Among the number was Miss Patience Greenland, sister of Mr. W. H. Greenland, of Coley's Point.

We are endeavoring to make The Guardian a good live weekly news paper, and we ask the cooperation of all our readers. If you are not a subscriber, begin now. If you are a subscriber, get us another subscription or more. Send us items of news. We can also take care of your printing and advertising.

Reports from north and south say that dogfish are plentiful along both coasts, and are seriously interfering with the codfishery. In one or two places they have appeared in big "schools" and almost completely destroyed traps, and where trawls have been set they have played havoc with the twines and made fishing impossible.

Labrador News

The S. S. Maigle arrived at St. John's from Labrador on Friday last having been as far north as Hopedale. From her report we glean the following facts:—

During the two weeks prior to her return the trap fishing on the coast had been poor, with the exception of Iron Bound Islands, and Ragged Islands, at which places good work was being done by "floaters."

Several vessels were at Cape Harrison, and all were doing well. One schooner hauled for 500 qtls., one for 400 qtls., and one for 300 qtls.

The hook and line men were doing well all along the coast, and when they fished in deep water were successful in getting boat loads daily.

It was thought that the fish, which, as we have before stated, struck in much earlier than usual this season, had gone into the bays, and that many of the "floaters" had probably followed it, and may have been successful in securing good takes.

We have now to wait for the return of the S. S. Sagona, when it is thought, that more favorable reports will be received. We sincerely trust these hopes will be realized.
