The "boodling" troubles that had for years been brewing in Ottawa, and bubbled over during the last session have after all, their root in the people "National Policy" which had already have after all, their root in the people of the trade with the "National Policy" which had already the Mayitima Prothemselves. Therefore, in condemning officials, we, the people, only condemn ourselves—whatever crimes there may have been committed, the people are accessories before the fact, the real instigators of crime. Why? The funds deprivable by dishonest ministers from dishonest contractors, have been used to buy up voters to purchase the people over the fact of vinces by upsetting everything else that was good. The Abbot government determined no longer to back up men whose advocacy would lead to the backing of themselves into the Chaudere River. -----A NUISANCE.

If this were the law no man, however high or honorable, could take exception to it, for he would know its meaning and that it was intended for his protection. It is true that even this method would not effect a radical cure—for there are men so regardless of an oath, that they would swear to anything for a few dollars. But in the main it would serve as a great check over the present system, for there are persons who might sell their votes; under present circumstances, whereas if confronted by an oath they would hesicante to take it falsely while they have consciences to be awakened, besides the danger of discovery and penalties of the law—the penitentiary. All honest politicians, especially leaders and members of legislative bodies should set their faces against this bribery business, and obtain such legislation as would care to sell state to take feet when would care to sell that few men would care to sell and the process of the process of the process of the process of the care of the purpose, we suppose, of the purpose t

For Over Fifty Years.

Last year two English farmers visited this province—like Joseph's brethren we this province—like Joseph's brethren we this province—like Joseph's brethren we suppose, who were accused by their brother—of coming to spy out the nakedness of the land; it certainly had very much that appearance for when they came the ground was covered with snow and its agricultural capabilities which they wanted to know about were hidden from view. No doubt on their return to
