A GAIN OF FOUR IN QUEBEC.

But Some Good Conservative Men Have Gone Under.

(Special to the Sun.) MONTREAL, Nov. 3.—Complete returns from the province of Quebec show that the conservatives gained four seats from the liberals in today's elections, and lost three held in the last parliament. Unless revised returns make a change, the Quebec representatives in the next parliament will stand: Liberals, 54; conservatives, 50. This is counting Gaspé, in which the election has yet to be held in the liberal column. At the last election there were 53 liberals and 7 conservatives returned from the province of Quebec. The seats gained by the conservatives today were: Argenteuil, where Mr. Perley defeated Mr. Christie; Beauharnois, where Mr. Bergeron redeemed the constituency; Charlevoix, where R. Forget is elected; Huntingdon, where Mr. Walsh defeated Mr. MacLaine, the old member, and L'Islet, where the conservative stand-off bearer is elected, and Pontiac. Seats conservatives also carried Jacques Cartier, Laval, Sherbrooke, St. Antoine division of Montreal and Dorchester, which were all held by them in the last parliament. The conservative losses are: Montmorency, where Mr. Casgrain was defeated by a son of Premier Parent of Quebec; Nicolet, where Mr. Ball was defeated by Solicitor General Lemieux, and Compton, where Mr. Pope was beaten. While the Quebec conservatives also carried the seat of J. G. H. Bergeron, Mr. Forget, Mr. Perley, Mr. Walsh and Mr. Paquet of L'Islet, all able men, it has suffered a distinct loss in the defeat of Hon. T. Chase Casgrain at Rufus Falls. St. Antoine division of Montreal and Dorchester, which were all held by them in the last parliament. The conservative losses are: Montmorency, where Mr. Casgrain was defeated by a son of Premier Parent of Quebec; Nicolet, where Mr. Ball was defeated by Solicitor General Lemieux, and Compton, where Mr. Pope was beaten. While the Quebec conservatives also carried the seat of J. G. H. Bergeron, Mr. Forget, Mr. Perley, Mr. Walsh and Mr. Paquet of L'Islet, all able men, it has suffered a distinct loss in the defeat of Hon. T. Chase Casgrain at Rufus Falls.
