Every one will be glad to hear that Mrs. Montgomery Moore is almost, if not quite recovered from the bad attack of influenza from which ahe has been suffering. Mrs. Montgomery Moore was well enough to give a small tea on Wednerday, which was very cheery and sociable.

The Woman's Work Exchange held a five o'clock tea and sale at their rooms on Barrington street, on Monday and Tuesday. Some charming work was sold off at reduced prices, as the management wish to begin the year with an entirely new stock. Beantiful things in drawn work went very cheaply, while better procs were realized for common articles, a very noticeable thing at sales. Very good tea and cake were to be obtained on both afternoons, and a large number of ladies were present.

The sharp weather of late has been very favorable to the ladies' hockey matches, which have been the great excitement. At one match between two teams of ladies, which was played at the Exhibition Rink, admission was charged, and a respectable sum realized. The ladies of the garrison were to have get up a team, but the intention fell through. Many people think hockey too rough a game for ladies, but it is the fashion with smart Canadian women, who do not seem to mind knocks—or comments—any more than Halifax ladies do.

Things are still very quiet in the social world and there is very little going on — No dances of any kind and only a few quiet little dinners and card parties. Invitations will be issued this week, for a dance to be given at a well known house, as a coming out dance for one of the daughters. It is being looked for with great itterest and will be heartily enjoyed.

A large card party at a house in the South end on donday night was one of the events of the week. I m told that the progressive Euchre prizes were ery handsome.

am told that the progressive Euchre prizes were vary handsome.

There is always one English steamer in the spring that takes a large contingent of fashionable people away. The Parisian leaving next week will have a large list of passengers all well known.

Halifax will lose Mr. Binney and Mr. Lancaster, who depart to settle in England. The late Bishop's house has heen advertised for sale, but as yet has not found a purchaser. Mr. Binney will be much missed amongst all classes and Halifax will feel sad. It has always been no of the great misfortunes of Halifax, that the tendency of the people has always been to go away and settle in England. One by one the old families have disappeared by emigration to England. But who can confer that people want to get away from a country where we have winter in April.

Miss Anna Stairr, also leaves on the Parisian for a visit to England.

Among the constantly increasing list of people who will leave Halitax on the Parisian next week, are Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kenny and Colonel Raymond, the latter going home permanently, his time on this garrison having expired. Many people will be extremely sorry to near of his departure, as he has been much liked by his circle of friends here. Colonel Raymond will join his wife and family, who have been in England for the past year.

There is some rumour to the effect that the R. A. and R. E. officers intend taking the Theological hall for a aummer residence! It is one of the largest houses on the Arm, and would really be better adapted for the residence of the Governor General and Lady Aberdeen, apropos of whom I was amused at a certain correspondent of an evening paper, who amounced that he was sorry to be before the "society writers" in giving out that the Aberdeen would spend some time here this summer. He was only twelve hours later than Proorates' despised "society writer" in doing so.

Lady Aberdeen goes to England in the end of May, and will bring the dowager Lady Aberdeen out with her on her return, meeting Lord Aberdeen twith her on her return, meeting Lord Aberdeen bere if a residence can be found for thm.

Colonel Anstruther, R. A., gave a very pleasant rink party on Monday atternoon; quite an innovation for Halifax, where such things always take place in AMWERST.

I PROGRESS is for sale at Amherst by Charle Hillcoat and at the music store of H. A. Hillcoat J. Apall. 4.—On Wednesday last an interesting event took place at the residence of Mr. J. Q. Reid which brought together a large number of the elite of Amherst to witness the marriage of Miss Minnie Reed and Mr. Thomas O. Dowling of St. John. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. A. Steele, pastor of the baptist church. The bride looked very pretty in a gown of cream silk very stylisly arranged and tastefully trimmed, the conventional veil and orange blossoms enhancing the effect which was completed by an exquisite bouquet of cream tea ro-es. Miss Maud Reid a younger sister was maid of henor wearing a sweetly pretty probe of cream cashnere with court front of cream satin with decoration of painted passes arranged conventionally #Bbe carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was the admiration point being a stranger as also his best man Mr. D. K. Mollison. Both looked a credit to the city by the sea and might have been taken as representatives of the houses of York and Lancaster, the groom doning a white rose and the groomsman a red.

Among the guests were Mrs. E. C. Eikin and Mrs. B. J. Dowling, St. Jehn, and Mrs. E. W. Dowling, Toronto.

The presents were of quality and quantity that fully showed the esteem held for the bride, the groom adding a handsome piano and lamp to the number.

The bridal party gathered at the depot to take the evening train, the creab being so great and the rice falling is such frequent showers it was almost impossible to get a good look at the bride in her going away gown which appeared to be composed of cloth of a dark ashee of rose shade stylishly trummed with bands of beaver and a very becoming hat of same shades. The greetings of their heet of friends went with them on their tour through Upper Casads.

Every number was rendered in a most appreciative manner. Miss Miles, who is an established favority, receiving her accustomed encore, and Miss Campbell's solo was deserving of the hearty recall to which she always pleasastly responds. Mrs. C. O. In making up up notes of last week I overlooked a most important past of my week's contribution. I immediately started it on its way but it failed to get to Processes office in time to connect, to my regret, as it contained the sad report of the death of Mr. Courtney Bilss, a lady so greatly esteemed in society and highly respected by all who snew her that it seemed lacking due respect to withold sympathy from the bereaved family and to overlook an occurrence that saddened the community. Outside her home, her loss will be felt greatest in Christ-church, of which ash was a devout member and a zeasous and energetic worker for the member and a zeasous and energetic worker for the great esteem held for the decussed.
