B., Sunday.—Collision with a whale off the Grand Banks caused such serious damage to the two-masted schooner Empire, Oporto St. John that the vessel was abandoned by her crew of six men and a passenger, who reached here today. The accident happened last Tuesday and, after keeping the vessel afloat two days, the crew had to leave the vessel and the bodies of the men were recovered on Monday. The men rowed one hundred and twenty miles toward land before they were picked up by a fishing schooner. The Empire was loaded with sail.

CAPTAIN HERSEY SUSPENDED. The certificate of Captain W. W. Hersey, of the steamer Amelia, has been suspended for three months as a result of the loss of the vessel, conducted by Captain W. R. Luger, R. N., at the county court house yesterday morning. The grounding of the Amelia at Bear's Head on the seventh of June last. The court held that the captain had been negligent in the handling of the vessel and that he had maintained greater care the accident would not have occurred. The hearing opened at ten o'clock and continued till two in the afternoon. The court was on when the finding of the court was reached. The Amelia sailed for St. John later in the day under the command of Captain Marshall O'Hara—Halifax Herald, July 9.
