GERMANY SHOWING EFFECTS OF GREAT FINANCIAL STRAIN

London, Aug. 29—Financial circles here include more optimists than most of the well-informed centres of opinion, for which a prominent financier gave the following reasons today. Optimists think that Germany cannot continue fighting for more than six months, as another year's war would require hundreds of thousands of tons of copper, also a large quantity of manganese. The navy prevents the import of both, as contraband and munitions cannot be made without them. It is known that Germans now to the brink of insolvency. munitions cannot be made without this strain them. It is known that Germans now to the brini
