LOGGIEVILLE

Loggieville, N. B., Nov. 22.—George McKnight, U.S.A., who was called home to Nappan on account of the death of his mother, Mrs. Samuel McKnight, was in town on his return. It is several years since Mr. McKnight visited this country, and his friends were glad to see him again.

The vote on Church Union was taken in Knox Church on Sunday last, with the result that about five to one voted in favor of same. The vote stood as follows: Elders voted 3 for and 4 against union. Communicants 67 for and 9 against union. Adherents voted 117 for and 2 against union.

L. Col. Mercereau was in town last week. The colonel is busy making arrangements for quartering his men for the winter. A number more of our boys are thinking seriously along the line of enlisting.

A movement is now on foot here by which the boys of the town, now serving at the front will each receive a Christmas box.

In connection with the Guild of Knox Church, there has recently been organized a Temperance Band. At a recent meeting of the Society 1 small boys signed the temperance pledge. Mrs. Marjory Fowle entertained the Swastika Club on Thursday evening of last week.

Mrs. John Edge was called to Newcastle recently by illness in the home of Mrs. Mathewson.

Mrs. Dempsey is visiting friends out of town.

Rally Day was observed in Knox Church on the morning of the 21st inst. The service was held in the Main body of the church, and was largely attended by a large number, not only of the enrolled members of the school, but of the general membership of the congregation. The order of service arranged by the Assembly's Board was followed closely. The superintendent, J. W. S. Baskin, gave an interesting outline of the work of the school and reported that the work has been steadily progressing. The pastor, Rev. Wilmer Robson, gave an address on the subject set down for the service. The singing was led by the choir of Knox Church. The programme throughout was an interesting one. The offering was in the vicinity of $14.00.

WELSFORD

Welsford, Nov. 20.—The funeral of John Barton, Armstrong's Corner, took place yesterday afternoon. Deceased was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barton and was highly respected and well known in the community. He passed away for a brief illness, suffering from pneumonia, on Wednesday morning. Deceased was fifty-five years of age and came here for the sake of his health from St. John thirty years ago, where he was employed with the firm of Manchester, Robertson & Allison, Ltd. He was of a very kind and amiable disposition and took a great interest in everything that made for the welfare of the neighborhood. In musical circles he will be greatly missed. He was a great lover of music; was organist at the services at Armstrong's Corner and took great interest in the choir. He was also superintendent of the Sunday school and will be greatly missed. Interment was made in the Lyon's burial ground. The ministers present were the Rev. J. S. Gregg, Rev. Mr. Watson, Rev. D. Jenkins, who took part in the service. Deceased leaves to mourn his loss an aged stepmother and four nieces, Grace at home, Addie, school teacher at Westfield, Hazel at Enniskillen, and Gladys at home. The pallbearers were Messrs. Harry, James, Thomas, Frank and Joseph Allingham and R. A. Corbett, cousins of the deceased. Also amongst those from the distance attending the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Bell, St. John; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Emery and family, St. John; Mr. Albert Barton and Mrs. Edward Barton, St. John; Mrs. Thomas Allingham and Mrs. Joseph Allingham, Garstown. The funeral was very largely attended. The choir of Armstrong's Corner was present and assisted with the music. Private Kenneth Woods of the 104th Battalion is home on a short furlough, visiting his parents.
