TOMOBILIST MYSTERIOUSLY MURDERED NEAR COSTIGAN, ME.

Bangor Commercial Traveller Slain and Body
Found Lying in Woods Near His Car After
Nearly Week — Jordan Lumber Co. Employee
Makes Discovery.

Bangor, Me., Sept. 30.—An abandoned automobile by the side of the county or river road, about three miles above Costigan and seven miles from Old Town, led to the discovery, Saturday, of the body of Arno B. Cayting, of Bangor, who had been robbed and murdered, his body lying in the woods since last Monday.

The crime was brought to light by Walter O'Keefe, employed by the Jordan Lumber Co., who made daily trips over the road. Observing that the automobile, a Saxon runabout, had remained in the same place since Monday, he notified Chief of Police Tremblay, of Old Town, who told Deputy Sheriff James McNaughton. The latter went to the spot and, after circling for a time in the woods between the road and the river, found the body of Cayting, about 150 feet from the road. A superficial examination disclosed wounds about the head. Sheriff A. L. Thayer and Medical Examiner Dr. E. T. Neely were notified. Sheriff-elect O. B. Farnandez was given charge of further investigations, and is working on the case.

The most important clue appears to be the murderer's weapon, a cheap .22 calibre revolver, hardly more than a toy, found about three feet from the body. Four chambers had been discharged, and two were loaded with .22 long cartridges, the ends of which had been cut off to fit the weapon, which was made for .22 short cartridges.

Three Wounds.
An autopsy was performed by Dr. Neely, disclosing three bullet wounds in the skull, any one of which would no doubt have been fatal, the bullets lodging in the brain. One entered the forehead and the other two from the back of the head. The hair was singed in one place, indicating that the shot was fired at short range. There was also a large contusion in the forehead as if from a blow with a club or some blunt instrument.

A silver open-face watch which Mr. Cayting carried was missing, and it is also believed that a pocketbook containing a considerable sum of money was taken, although a bill-fold containing about $15 was found.

AMERICAN TROOPS IN HEAVY FIGHTING

Large Number of Germans
Killed and Hindenburg Line
Penetrated.

With the American Army on the St. Quentin Sector, Sept. 30.—(By The Associated Press, 4.30 p. m.)—The Americans on this front have been engaged in heavy fighting throughout the day. There was much hand-to-hand fighting and large numbers of Germans have been killed, many by grenades and bombs dropped into their deep dugouts of the Hindenburg system.

The Americans found it necessary to clear up portions of the Hindenburg line through which they smashed their way. They advanced so quickly in their operations of yesterday that many Germans were left in the dugouts, and some of these proved a serious menace.

WEDDINGS.

Wetmore-McDrien.
A quiet wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. J. H. Jenner, 133 Prince Street, West Side, when George A. Wetmore, of Humphries Mills was married to Georgia Irene McDrien, of St. John. The happy couple were accompanied by Mrs. George Mott and Miss Florence McDrien, sister of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Wetmore will reside in this city.

Doctor Tells How To Strengthen Eyesight 50 Per Cent. In One Week's Time In Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitude more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple

Travelling Salesman.

Mr. Cayting, who for the past ten years has been a salesman for the American Tobacco Co., of late years visited jobs as a special representative, left his home in Bangor quite early on Monday morning of last week for a two weeks' trip in Northern Maine, using the car belonging to the company. He stopped in Old Town about 9 o'clock, chatted with friends, and that was the last time he was seen alive. As far as known he did not stop in Millford or Coogan. It is believed that the shooting took place at about 10 o'clock, which makes the crime all the more bold as it was in broad daylight on the principal thoroughfare to Northern Maine. The car was found turned sharply to the left with the brakes set. The nearest house is nearly three-quarters of a mile from the spot. One theory is that Cayting may have asked someone to ride, and a struggle took place in the car. Possibly he may have been shot from behind without being aware of the intention of the murderer. This is all a matter of conjecture, but it is evident that the shooting was at very short range.

The body was in good condition, notwithstanding it had been exposed to the weather and almost continuous rains all the week. The rain had etched all marks in the road which may have been chases and the case is thus far baffling for the authorities, although there are a few clues which may lead to results.

A College Athlete.

Burr Cayting was born in St. John, N. B., 18 years ago, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Cayting. Mr. Cayting has for some time been travelling salesman for T. R. Savage & Co. The son graduated from Brewer high school and from the University of Maine in the class of 1907. He was prominent in college activities, a member of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity, and since his graduation has been one of the most loyal alumni, being particularly interested in athletics. He entered the employ of the American Tobacco Co. soon after his graduation. He is survived by his wife, Mildred Mosher Cayting, and two children.

UKRAINIANS FORMING ENTIRELY NEW ARMY

Eight New Army Corps of
Two Divisions Each Being Organized.

Amsterdam, Sept. 30.—General Rogosa, the Ukrainian war minister, according to a telegram from Kiev, announced that plans for a Ukrainian army call for the formation of eighty army corps of two divisions each. The minister declared that the population regarded the plan sympathetically while Germany and Austria-Hungary are showing "extreme good will" to ward the formation of a Ukrainian army and are promoting it "generously and energetically." Both Germany and Austria, he added, denied they wished to use the Ukrainian army for their own interests.

Ukrainian youths who will be 20 years old next January will soon be called to join the conscript army, but at present only those of the propertied classes will be taken.

MUCH BAD NEWS HITS GERMANY'S PAPERS HARD

Press Hysterically Emphasizes Need For Cool Heads Never
Stronger — President Wilson
Abused.

Amsterdam, Sept. 30. (By The Associated Press).—The German press today is hysterically emphasizing the need for cool heads never was greater than now. The possibility, never before entertained or visualized, is beginning to dawn on the people that Germany may lose the war, and the suddenness of this realization has had a bewildering effect on them. The "Zeitung Am Mittag" entirely approved an wholly appropriate to the occasion the sensational editorial printed in "Vorwarts" last week, dealing with what would happen should an enemy succeed in invading the fatherland. It makes an assertion remarkable for this newspaper, saying: "Our government throughout this terrible war has sedulously avoided hinting at this, and the other possibility, namely, that the war may be lost if every body and everything are not united in the utmost effort."

The government has thus itself contributed to veiling the real gravity of war. The newspaper continues: "It has preferred to lead the nation in blinkers past the abyss of danger to our national life." The "Rheinisch Westphalian Gazette" shudderingly contemplates the Bulgarian situation, "the last and highest wave," and suspects that the Bulgarians, after having got the Dobruja region of Rumania, have no further use for Germany.

The "Frankfurt Zeitung" expresses regret that the government failed to impress on friend and foe with "truth" that Germany did not go into the war out of lust for power.

This newspaper freely admits that the Bulgarians are justified in feeling war tired and thinks the Bulgarian people will stand by Premier Malinoff. Finally the "Frankfurt Zeitung" begs the government to make for peace, "unequivocally and sincerely."

The "Dusseldorf Nachrichten" bewails the fact that troops will have to be sent to Macedonia from the western front "where they are so bitterly needed for Germany."

For Thrift

TO win the war, Money is needed. So that—Thrift is a War Service.

Every dollar you save instead of spending thoughtlessly, releases labour in some form—labour sorely needed for war purposes.

Thrift is enforced in the use of many things today, such as flour, sugar, and coal, by the simple expedient of limiting the amount one may buy.

But thousands of extravagant habits flourish unchecked, and these are contributory hindrances to an early peace. Such habits are accomplices of the Kaiser.

For instance, there is no excuse for a man hiring another man to shave him. It wastes time, money and vital labour. You can shave yourself better with a Gillette Safety Razor in five minutes.

Buy a Gillette and wipe out the dollar a week expense. At the end of a year you have saved practically $52.

With such a saving you can buy a $50 War Bond (the purchase of which enables the Government to produce 15,000 cartridges), and you still have the finest razor in the world, good for an unlimited number of inimitable daily shaves—shaves that leave the skin perfectly smooth. The touch of the Gillette is thoroughly agreeable to the most tender skin.

Thrift will help to win the war. Gillette Razors are doing their share—at home and at the front.

Any jeweler, druggist, or hardware dealer will be glad to show you his assortment of Gillette Razors today. The price is five dollars.
