

In Your Position

You are placed, either work on a carpenter or bricklayer, or everything. Get into it.

UNDERWEAR

The best long staple domestic wool in Canada's Best. EED UNSHRINKABLE.

UNSHRINKABLE

ureka OVA SCOTIA WOOL REGISTERED

FOOD TAX

APPROVED That Party Declares to Destruction and for Renewal of the is the empire reference being called question, but the demand for the referendum is being warmly supported by the Unionists, because they are drifting to destruction and that the referendum can possibly gain the next year.

NOTICE

ALL PERSONS INDEBTED to the estate of John Law, late of Georgetown, Queens County, deceased, are requested to make immediate payment and all persons having claims against said estate will present the same duly attested within three months from this date.

WANTED

WANTED—Two house maids for the Netherwood School. Address: Homekeeper, Netherwood.

WANTED

WANTED—Second class female teacher (Protestant) for District No. 6, Parish of Lorne, Victoria Co. District quarter poor. State salary, and address W. H. Miller, Secretary to Trustees, Niswau, N. B.

AGENTS WANTED

HAVE YOU talked to one of Palham's salesmen recently? If not the Agency is open and your opportunity to sell Palham's famous nursery stock. Widely and widely known. Write for particulars to Palham Nursery Co., Toronto.

FOR SALE

MILL machinery for sale. I have for sale the following second-hand mill machinery in good order: Engine, boiler, rotary (complete), lath machine, cut-off saw, shafting, pulleys and belts. Will be sold at a bargain on favorable terms. Price on application. W. P. Jones, Solicitor, Woodstock, N. B., Aug. 20, 1912. 12353-125

SEND me 25 cents for my improved

Formula of the best White Liniment on the market, costs 25 cents to make one quart. Good for man or beast. Box 100 Telegraph, St. John, N. B. 23-17

AT Parkburg, N. B., one and a half miles from I. C. R. station, 120 acres, 80 in timber land, good soil and well watered. Two large barns and seven-room house. One mile to school and post office. For terms, address A. M. Mathews, 148 Chandler street, Boston, Mass.

WE will have a hard time to beat last year's record, but will try to do it, and have already had a good start.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

When required to do so by his conscience that a man who says a recalcitrant school would be held together by the law of the land, that the gathering was not a mere letter rigidly adhered to when occasion the speaker and the congregation talking to one or two of the men, these in the room, who numbered about 80, gathered round and in the end the speaker, who was the war were mentioned, they did the greatest attention. After a while of the men pointed to a copy of Evening Times and began reading on the table and asked the speaker to have the reporter read the despatches of the day, which contained some news of the conflict, with names of the ministers who were in the front line, and when they read slowly the despatches in which issued three times weekly, and he talked to one another in Polish, which may be all right to understand, but is certainly not useful. During the reading their faces showed great interest, and when the speaker mentioned the name of David Pasha was mentioned there was a shaking of heads, and many expressions of surprise. They are all of the men follow the news of the conflict, and evidently regard it as calculated, but seen not a whit afraid of the being anything but in their favor. The men follow the news of the conflict, and evidently regard it as calculated, but seen not a whit afraid of the being anything but in their favor.

MAN SHOT DEAD BY SWEETHEART AT TARGET PRACTICE

Hammond, La., Dec. 25—George Abbott, manager of the Hammond Bottling Company, was shot and killed yesterday afternoon by his sweetheart, Miss Estelle Fleming, while they were engaged in target practice as diversion at their Xmas dinner.

MISS FLEMING and Abbott were guests at dinner at the home of J. D. Kelly.

When the guests had left the table one of them suggested that they all go out in the back yard and shoot at targets. Rifles and pistols were procured and the guests began to show their skill. Miss Fleming had fired once with an automatic pistol. As she turned with the weapon still uplifted and pointing at Abbott, someone else shot at the target. The report frightened Miss Fleming, already nervous over the shooting, and she pulled the trigger. The ball entered Abbott's left arm and side, passing through the body and severing one of the arteries leading to the heart. He died in twenty minutes.

DEPENDS

"The man I want you to meet is out. This card on the door says 'Gone to lunch; back in ten minutes.' Shall we wait?" "That depends. Is your friend a fibber or a dyspeptic?"

MARVELOUS

She—And to think I am the only girl you ever loved! He—Yes, dear!

She—And to think you thought I believed it!

THE JAPANESE NATIONAL ANTHEM

(Oriental Review). National anthems are usually more proud and vigorous of sentiment than poetical of expression. But the Japanese hymn is marked by a delicate lyric charm that symbolizes for the western mind something of the fragile and miniature beauty of the island empire and at the same time embodies in few lines the very heart of its patriotism. It is fresh and satisfying to the ear and its tried and touching melody. In English the ten lines make a pleasing poem. They read:

Until this grain of sand, Tossed by each wavelet's freak, Grow to a cloud gift peak Towering above the land; Until the dewy dale, Beading this blossom's gold Swell to a mighty lake— Age upon age unfold, Add to thy sovereign's sake.

In October the number of emigrants who left the United Kingdom for permanent residences in other countries was 40,232.

DEATHS

CROSS—Suddenly, at Berkeley, California, December 23, Charles Vine Cross, son of Rev. Henry Cross, of Redbank (N. J.), formerly pastor of German street Baptist church in this city, and brother of Wm. C. Cross, of St. John, leaving besides his father, a wife and three children, and three brothers, and one sister to mourn.

ELLIS—On the 24th inst., at the residence of his parents, 72 Sydney street, William Edward Ellis, of Victoria Hospital, Halifax, on December 24, John Hastie, of Windsor (N. S.), leaving widow, also mother, sister, and brother in Edinburgh (Scot.).

MURPHY—Suddenly on the 24th inst., at 214 Main street, Emma N. Merritt, widow of T. Grey Merritt.

REID—At Upland, December 22, 1912, Mary Emma, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Reid.

GORDON—After a lingering illness, in this city, on the 22nd inst., Robert H. Gordon, in the 47th year of his age, leaving a wife and one child to mourn.

THE ROBERT REFOR CO. LIMITED

ST. JOHN, N. B. PASSENGER AGENTS FOR Donaldson Line To Glasgow. Cunard Line To Liverpool, London and the Mediterranean. White Star Line To Liverpool, Southampton and the Mediterranean.

REAL ESTATE

The transfer of a large property in the Courtney Bay district was reported yesterday. The property consists of sixty-five acres with small house and barn at Red Head bluff, adjoining the Hazen property. It has a fine frontage on the shore and runs back to the old Loch Lomond road with the Red Head road running through it. The former owner was H. B. Harrington, and the sale was made by Allison & Thomas, realtors.

The following transfers of freehold properties have been recorded: G. A. Anderson to George Maxwell, property in small house and barn at Red Head, property in Simons. Annie E. McLeod, et al., to Amiel Brothers, property in Mecklenburg street. Thomas Gale to A. M. Bouillon, property near Narrows.

Patrick O'Keefe to C. O. Crosby Molasses Co., property in Brook street. A. R. Wilson to T. H. Foster, property in Union street. An agreement of sale from G. B. Peters to H. H. Pickett, 84,500 property in Union street and assignment of same from H. H. Pickett to W. E. Foster have been recorded.

The following transfers of freehold properties in the County of St. John have been recorded: J. C. Baker to Grant Johnston, property in Brussels street. Pearl L. Jordan to Luther Jordan, property in Union street. Pearl L. Jordan to Luther Jordan, property in Main street. S. L. Litchfield, to Bessie Sadler, property in Union street. A. T. McLeod to Allison & Thomas, property at the corner of Portland and Chapel streets.

Patrick O'Keefe to F. N. Brodie, property in Sheffield street. James Ready to J. L. O'Brien, property in Lancaster. John Roberts to Oscar Hanson, property in Spring street. H. G. Smith to J. L. Sullivan, property in Lancaster. A. S. White to H. G. Currie, property in Charles street.

HOW TO CURE CORNED BEEF

The pieces usually corned are the cheaper cuts, such as the picnic, brisket, corned ribs, etc. The pieces for corning should be cut into uniform, desirable sizes, about six or eight inches square, to suit the pot. The meat should be thoroughly chilled, but not frozen. One ounce of saltpeter, 25 pounds of meat, water as needed, two pounds of salt, one pound of sugar, one ounce of soda. Into the bottom of the jar or barrel sprinkle a layer of salt, then put on another layer of salt, then meat, until all is used. Save enough salt for a good layer over the top. Put the meat in and overnight, then all the remaining ingredients dissolved in one quart of warm water. Pour this over the meat and add enough water to cover the meat. Put in a weight on a loose board-cover to hold all under the water. The meat is thoroughly covered in about one month. If the brine becomes sour, it is best to discard it and make a new brine. The saltpeter may be omitted as desired—Eldora Lockwood Dod, in Woman's World for January.

THE GOSPEL OF COURAGE

Ralph Waldo Emerson states his belief thus in Harper's Bazar for January: "To get up each morning determined to be happy, determined to be master of the day, to be contented with what is bestowed; to be firm; to take away this attitude of mind when the drolful thought presents itself or the bog-man attempts to show his face; to look always on the bright side of things, determined to stand always in the sunshine rather than in the shadow—this is it that makes life with its daily round and its knotty problems continually easier. This hopeful, optimistic, courage-awakening attitude of mind and heart is to be set into operation subtle, silent forces that are continually working along the lines we are going and that open the way for us to arrive."

DEATHS

CROSS—Suddenly, at Berkeley, California, December 23, Charles Vine Cross, son of Rev. Henry Cross, of Redbank (N. J.), formerly pastor of German street Baptist church in this city, and brother of Wm. C. Cross, of St. John, leaving besides his father, a wife and three children, and three brothers, and one sister to mourn.

ELLIS—On the 24th inst., at the residence of his parents, 72 Sydney street, William Edward Ellis, of Victoria Hospital, Halifax, on December 24, John Hastie, of Windsor (N. S.), leaving widow, also mother, sister, and brother in Edinburgh (Scot.).

MURPHY—Suddenly on the 24th inst., at 214 Main street, Emma N. Merritt, widow of T. Grey Merritt.

REID—At Upland, December 22, 1912, Mary Emma, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Reid.

GORDON—After a lingering illness, in this city, on the 22nd inst., Robert H. Gordon, in the 47th year of his age, leaving a wife and one child to mourn.

UNIVERSITY OF N. B. CLASS LISTS

DECEMBER, 1912

The following are the U. N. B. class lists, terminal examinations, December, 1912. Sophomore Mathematics. Class I—Miss MacNaughton, Ross, Titus, Atkinson, Marr, Miss Adams, Fraser, Hipwell, Webb, Murphy, Holman. Class II—Owens, Berwer, Stiles, Merceau, Lynch, Oty, Lawson, Gallant, Miller. Class III—MacGibbon, Miss Neale, Ketchum, Everett, deVeber.

Freshman Mathematics. Class I—Miss Galt, Good, Baird, Scott, Miss Thurrott, Wallace, Cass, Emerson, Belliveau, Williams, Jones, Miss Anderson, Venius, McLaughlin, J. McLean, Baker, Hickman, Gillett, Turner, Jones, Dunn. Class II—Elliott, Miss Bliss, R. McLean, Miss Fisk, Hall, Webb, Moyle, Townsend, Edget, F. J. McLean. Class III—Trenshaw, Murray, Cronkie, Alexander, Armstrong.

Senior Mathematics. Class I—Hippwell, Webb, Oty, Maclean, Fraser, deVeber, Holman, Hickman, Murphy, Ross, Miller, Gallant, Lawson, Ketchum. Class II—Owens, Everett, Jago. Class III—Jewett.

Sophomore Physics. Class I—Ross, Miss MacNaughton, Miss Adams, Hipwell, Mary, Webb. Class II—Wilson, Foster, Peasey, Veniot, Merceau, Oty, Miss Neale. Class III—Titus, Ketchum, MacGibbon, Drenis, Hickman, deVeber.

Sophomore Laboratory. Class I—Hippwell, Webb, Oty, Maclean, Fraser, deVeber, Holman, Hickman, Murphy, Ross, Miller, Gallant, Lawson, Ketchum. Class II—Owens, Everett, Jago. Class III—Jewett.

Senior Applied Mechanics. Class I—Jones, Johnston, Berry, Peasey, McKinnon, Veniot, Allen, Wilson, Foster, Bower, Currie, McKay, Parker, Murray, Currie, Webb, Maclean. Class II—McKenzie, Renault. Class III—McKenzie.

Senior Structures. Class I—Johnston, Jones, White, Currie, Berry, Wilson, Foster, Peasey, Veniot, Renault, McKinnon, Allen. Class II—Murray, McKay, Maclean, Bower, Parker. Class III—Vassour, McKenzie.

Senior Public Water Supplies. Class I—Jones, Berry, Johnston, Currie, Renault, Murray, McKinnon, Wilson, Veniot, Peasey, White, Shiras, Machum, Foster, Allen. Class II—Brewer, McKay, McKenzie. Class III—McKenzie.

Senior Engineering Camp. Class I—Renault, McKenzie, Allen, White, eVeniot, Foster, Johnston, Wilson, Berry, Jones, Currie, Peasey, McKinnon, McKay. Class II—Bower, Dugay. Class III—McKenzie.

Junior Applied Mechanics. Class I—Baird, Brown, Melanson, Platt, Andrews, Bender, Alexander, McLeod, Morrison, Weston, Brewer, Vanwart, McKay. Class II—Bower, Murray, Whelpley, Alker. Class III—McKenzie.

Junior Hydraulics. Class I—Alexander, Melanson, Melrose, Brown, A. Gunter, Weston, Baird, Platt, Andrews, Asker. Class II—Bender, McLeod, Laughlin, Laughlin, Andrews, Melrose, Morrison, McKay, Bower, H. R. Gunter, A. Gunter, Bower. Class III—Murray, Macdonald.

Junior Materials and Foundations. Class I—Melanson, Weston, Alexander, Brown, Baird, Platt, Murray, Vanwart, Macdonald, Murray, Morrison, McKay, Bower, H. R. Gunter, A. Gunter, Bower. Class II—Murray, Macdonald. Class III—Murray, Macdonald.

Junior Anatomy. Class I—Miss Jewett, Baird, Miss Kirk, Simms, Miss Wallace, Dougherty. Class II—Gilbert, Miss Greenlaw, Miss Lockary. Class III—McKenzie.

Sophomore Zoology. Class I—Marr, Merceau, Miss MacNaughton, Miss Neale, Stiles, Atkinson, Titus. Class II—Miss Adams. Class III—McKenzie.

Senior Economics. Class I—Carter, Belliveau, Miss Kitchen, Patterson, Carpenter, Harry, Brown. Class II—McKay, McFarlane. Class III—Heard.

Junior Economics. Class I—Baird, Rice, Miss Jewett, Duffy, Simms, Dougherty, Gilbert. Class II—Macdonald, Miss Lockary, Melrose, Laughlin, Miss Wier, Gunter. Class III—McKenzie.

Junior Philosophy. Class I—Rice, Miss Wallace, Baird, Gilbert. Class II—Miss Jewett, Dougherty, Miss Kirk, Simms, Miss Wier. Class III—Miss Lockary, Duffy, Miss Greenlaw.

Sophomore Logic. Class I—Miss Adams, Miss MacNaughton, Marr, Miss Neale, Atkinson. Class II—Titus, Stiles, Merceau. Class III—Heard.

Contracts (Seniors and Juniors). Class I—Carpenter, Rice, McKay, Dougherty, Simms, Patterson, Duffy. Class II—McKay, McFarlane. Class III—Heard.

Senior Physics. Class I—Currie, Jones, McKinnon, Patterson, Veniot, Allen, Berry, Bower, Foster, Wilson. Class II—Peasey, Johnston, White, Renault. Class III—Ketchum.

Senior Electrical Engineering. Class I—Murray. Class II—Maclean. Class III—Parker.

Senior Electrical Engineering Laboratory. Class I—Maclean, Murray. Class II—Parker, Vassour. Class III—McKenzie.

Senior Physics. Class I—K. Baird, Weston, A. F. Baird, Melanson, Brown, Alexander. Class II—Asker, Andrews, McKay, Platt, Whelpley, Jewett, Bender. Class III—Morrison.

Junior Electrical Engineering Laboratory. Class I—Baird, Asker, Andrews, Whelpley. Class II—Jewett. Class III—McKenzie.

Senior English. Class I—Miss Kirk, Miss Wallace, Miss Jewett. Class II—Miss Wier, Baird, Simms. Class III—Duffy, Miss Greenlaw, Miss Lockary.

Sophomore English. Class I—Marr, Miss Neale, Merceau, Miss Adams, Miss MacNaughton, Stiles, Webb, Miss Fisk, Miss Bliss, Belliveau, Venius, Miss Galt, Miss Anderson, Hickman, Edgett, Flood, Townsend. Class II—Cronkie, Alexander, Armstrong, Edgton, Hall, Jones, Williams, Murray, Turner. Class III—McKenzie.

Senior French. Class I—Miss Steeves, Miss McKnight, Class II—Miss Vanwart, Hanson, Patterson, Miss Corbett, Miss Carleton, Miss Russell. Class III—McKenzie.

Junior French. Class I—Miss Kirk, Miss Wallace. Class II—Rice. Class III—McKenzie.

Sophomore French. Class I—Miss Neale, Miss Adams, Miss MacNaughton, Miss Wallace, Miss Stiles, McKnight, McKay, Venius, Merceau, Ross, Gallant, Owens. Class II—Everett, Murphy, Ross, Holman. Class III—Everett, Murphy, Ross, Holman.

Senior Mechanics of Materials. Class I—Jones, Currie, Maclean, Berry, Wilson, Allen, Johnston, Foster, Veniot, White, McKinnon. Class II—Peasey, Renault, Murray. Class III—Bower, Parker, McKay, McKenzie.

Senior Machine Design. Class I—Maclean. Class II—Murray, Parker. Class III—Vassour.

Junior Mechanical Engineering. Class I—Baird, Andrews. Class II—Whelpley. Class III—McKenzie.

Sophomore Mechanics of Materials. Class I—Hippwell, Ross, Webb, Lawson, Macdonald, Murray, McKay, deVeber. Class II—Fraser, Ketchum, Holman, Owens, Murphy, Lynch. Class III—MacGibbon, McKinnon, Gallant.

Senior German. Class I—Carter. Class II—Ketchum, Hipwell. Class III—McKenzie.

Sophomore German. Class I—Dunn, Patterson, Miss Galt. Class II—Morrison, Oatman, Townsend, Miss Fisk, Armstrong, Alexander. Class III—McKenzie.

Freshman Chemistry. Class I—Hickman, Wallace, Macdonald, Williams, Baird, Good, Webb, Inches, Miss Galt, R. McLean, Belliveau, Gilbert, Hall, Venius, Baxter, Turner, Cass, Miss Thurrott. Class II—Mooney, J. McLean, Dunn, Miss Anderson, Miss Fisk, Murray, Cronkie, Flood, Jones, Emerson, Miss Nicholson, Miss Bliss, Carleton. Class III—Scott, Townsend, Edgett, Armstrong, Alexander, Edgton.

Senior Chemistry. Class I—Brown, Alexander, Simms, K. Baird, Miss Jewett, Gilbert, Melanson. Class II—Andrews, Weston, Rice, Miss Kirk, Dougherty, Laughlin, Bender, Duffy, McKay, A. F. Baird, Melrose, Bower, Brewer, Miss Wallace, Vanwart, Platt. Class III—Miss Lockary, Asker, Jewett.

Senior History. Class I—Nason, Bellkam, Miss Corbett, Miss Steeves, Barry, Miss Carleton, Miss Russell. Class II—Miss Lingley, Brown, Miss Vanwart, McKay. Class III—McKenzie.

Junior History. Class I—Miss Wallace, Miss Jewett. Class II—Miss Greenlaw, Duffy, Miss Kirk, Miss Wier, Gilbert. Class III—Ketchum.

That sphinx was known to the ancients is a well-attested fact, its use as a binder for masonry in Babylon being in point, but of its use other than this we know nothing. Strabo tells us that as early as 2000 B. C. the streets of Babylon were paved, and so, too, presumably were the great roads leading out from the many gates of that city. Babylon was situated in the alluvial plain of Mesopotamia and its building material was almost entirely clay, either as such or in the form of bricks. It seems rather doubtful that the latter were used to pave the streets at that early date. Asphalt was abundant and much used in building operations, and it is probable that it was used to improve the streets—Dr. E. W. Gudgeon in Science.

Six clergymen have joined the Los Angeles police department, their specialty being the regulation of dance halls and the protection of children.

When the ship started on its next voyage, Jim was to be seen, but later he appeared unexpectedly. This time he was accompanied by his master's dog, and always accompanied his master on his voyages. When the captain died he left Jim to his friend, who was a clerk in the office of an eastern steamship company. Jim stayed with his new master just one night. The next morning he had disappeared. When the boat which the dead captain used to sail was well out to sea, a gaunt, shaggy-haired dog crawled out from some hiding place in the pilot house whistling pitifully. The crew received him with delight, but Jim paid little attention to them. He was searching for one he could not find, and it was long before he could be persuaded even to take food. He showed a decided dislike for the new captain, and growled whenever that officer tried to make friends with him. He seemed to feel that the captain was somewhat responsible for the loss of his master. During the outgoing voyage, Jim provided incessantly about the ship, but on the return he gravely refused to be taken to the shore until the dock was reached. When the ship started on its next voyage, Jim was to be seen, but later he appeared unexpectedly. This time he was accompanied by his master's dog, and always accompanied his master on his voyages.

When the captain died he left Jim to his friend, who was a clerk in the office of an eastern steamship company. Jim stayed with his new master just one night. The next morning he had disappeared. When the boat which the dead captain used to sail was well out to sea, a gaunt, shaggy-haired dog crawled out from some hiding place in the pilot house whistling pitifully. The crew received him with delight, but Jim paid little attention to them. He was searching for one he could not find, and it was long before he could be persuaded even to take food. He showed a decided dislike for the new captain, and growled whenever that officer tried to make friends with him. He seemed to feel that the captain was somewhat responsible for the loss of his master. During the outgoing voyage, Jim provided incessantly about the ship, but on the return he gravely refused to be taken to the shore until the dock was reached. When the ship started on its next voyage, Jim was to be seen, but later he appeared unexpectedly. This time he was accompanied by his master's dog, and always accompanied his master on his voyages.

When the captain died he left Jim to his friend, who was a clerk in the office of an eastern steamship company. Jim stayed with his new master just one night. The next morning he had disappeared. When the boat which the dead captain used to sail was well out to sea, a gaunt, shaggy-haired dog crawled out from some hiding place in the pilot house whistling pitifully. The crew received him with delight, but Jim paid little attention to them. He was searching for one he could not find, and it was long before he could be persuaded even to take food. He showed a decided dislike for the new captain, and growled whenever that officer tried to make friends with him. He seemed to feel that the captain was somewhat responsible for the loss of his master. During the outgoing voyage, Jim provided incessantly about the ship, but on the return he gravely refused to be taken to the shore until the dock was reached. When the ship started on its next voyage, Jim was to be seen, but later he appeared unexpectedly. This time he was accompanied by his master's dog, and always accompanied his master on his voyages.

When the captain died he left Jim to his friend, who was a clerk in the office of an eastern steamship company. Jim stayed with his new master just one night. The next morning he had disappeared. When the boat which the dead captain used to sail was well out to sea, a gaunt, shaggy-haired dog crawled out from some hiding place in the pilot house whistling pitifully. The crew received him with delight, but Jim paid little attention to them. He was searching for one he could not find, and it was long before he could be persuaded even to take food. He showed a decided dislike for the new captain, and growled whenever that officer tried to make friends with him. He seemed to feel that the captain was somewhat responsible for the loss of his master. During the outgoing voyage, Jim provided incessantly about the ship, but on the return he gravely refused to be taken to the shore until the dock was reached. When the ship started on its next voyage, Jim was to be seen, but later he appeared unexpectedly. This time he was accompanied by his master's dog, and always accompanied his master on his voyages.

When the captain died he left Jim to his friend, who was a clerk in the office of an eastern steamship company. Jim stayed with his new master just one night. The next morning he had disappeared. When the boat which the dead captain used to sail was well out to sea, a gaunt, shaggy-haired dog crawled out from some hiding place in the pilot house whistling pitifully. The crew received him with delight, but Jim paid little attention to them. He was searching for one he could not find, and it was long before he could be persuaded even to take food. He showed a decided dislike for the new captain, and growled whenever that officer tried to make friends with him. He seemed to feel that the captain was somewhat responsible for the loss of his master. During the outgoing voyage, Jim provided incessantly about the ship, but on the return he gravely refused to be taken to the shore until the dock was reached. When the ship started on its next voyage, Jim was to be seen, but later he appeared unexpectedly. This time he was accompanied by his master's dog, and always accompanied his master on his voyages.

When the captain died he left Jim to his friend, who was a clerk in the office of an eastern steamship company. Jim stayed with his new master just one night. The next morning he had disappeared. When the boat which the dead captain used to sail was well out to sea, a gaunt, shaggy-haired dog crawled out from some hiding place in the pilot house whistling pitifully. The crew received him with delight, but Jim paid little attention to them. He was searching for one he could not find, and it was long before he could be persuaded even to take food. He showed a decided dislike for the new captain, and growled whenever that officer tried to make friends with him. He seemed to feel that the captain was somewhat responsible for the loss of his master. During the outgoing voyage, Jim provided incessantly about the ship, but on the return he gravely refused to be taken to the shore until the dock was reached. When the ship started on its next voyage, Jim was to be seen, but later he appeared unexpectedly. This time he was accompanied by his master's dog, and always accompanied his master on his voyages.

When the captain died he left Jim to his friend, who was a clerk in the office of an eastern steamship company. Jim stayed with his new master just one night. The next morning he had disappeared. When the boat which the dead captain used to sail was well out to sea, a gaunt, shaggy-haired dog crawled out from some hiding place in the pilot house whistling pitifully. The crew received him with delight, but Jim paid little attention to them. He was searching for one he could not find, and it was long before he could be persuaded even to take food. He showed a decided dislike for the new captain, and growled whenever that officer tried to make friends with him. He seemed to feel that the captain was somewhat responsible for the loss of his master. During the outgoing voyage, Jim provided incessantly about the ship, but on the return he gravely refused to be taken to the shore until the dock was reached. When the ship started on its next voyage, Jim was to be seen, but later he appeared unexpectedly. This time he was accompanied by his master's dog, and always accompanied his master on his voyages.

When the captain died he left Jim to his friend, who was a clerk in the office of an eastern steamship company. Jim stayed with his new master just one night. The next morning he had disappeared. When the boat which the dead captain used to sail was well out to sea, a gaunt, shaggy-haired dog crawled out from some hiding place in the pilot house whistling pitifully. The crew received him with delight, but Jim paid little attention to them. He was searching for one he could not find, and it was long before he could be persuaded even to take food. He showed a decided dislike for the new captain, and growled whenever that officer tried to make friends with him. He seemed to feel that the captain was somewhat responsible for the loss of his master. During the outgoing voyage, Jim provided incessantly about the ship, but on the return he gravely refused to be taken to the shore until the dock was reached. When the ship started on its next voyage, Jim was to be seen, but later he appeared unexpectedly. This time he was accompanied by his master's dog, and always accompanied his master on his voyages.

When the captain died he left Jim to his friend, who was a clerk in the office of an eastern steamship company. Jim stayed with his new master just one night. The next morning he had disappeared. When the boat which the dead captain used to sail was well out to sea, a gaunt, shaggy-haired dog crawled out from some hiding place in the pilot house whistling pitifully. The crew received him with delight, but Jim paid little attention to them. He was searching for one he could not find, and it was long before he could be persuaded even to take food. He showed a decided dislike for the new captain, and growled whenever that officer tried to make friends with him. He seemed to feel that the captain was somewhat responsible for the loss of his master. During the outgoing voyage, Jim provided incessantly about the ship, but on the return he gravely refused to be taken to the shore until the dock was reached. When the ship started on its next voyage, Jim was to be seen, but later he appeared unexpectedly. This time he was accompanied by his master's dog, and always accompanied his master on his voyages.

When the captain died he left Jim to his friend, who was a clerk in the office of an eastern steamship company. Jim stayed with his new master just one night. The next morning he had disappeared. When the boat which the dead captain used to sail was well out to sea, a gaunt, shaggy-haired dog crawled out from some hiding place in the pilot house whistling pitifully. The crew received him with delight, but Jim paid little attention to them. He was searching for one he could not find, and it was long before he could be persuaded even to take food. He showed a decided dislike for the new captain, and growled whenever that officer tried to make friends with him. He seemed to feel that the captain was somewhat responsible for the loss of his master. During the outgoing voyage, Jim provided incessantly about the ship, but on the return he gravely refused to be taken to the shore until the dock was reached. When the ship started on its next voyage, Jim was to be seen, but later he appeared unexpectedly. This time he was accompanied by his master's dog, and always accompanied his master on his voyages.

When the captain died he left Jim to his friend, who was a clerk in the office of an eastern steamship company. Jim stayed with his new master just one night. The next morning he had disappeared. When the boat which the dead captain used to sail was well out to sea, a gaunt, shaggy-haired dog crawled out from some hiding place in the pilot house whistling pitifully. The crew received him with delight, but Jim paid little attention to them. He was searching for one he could not find, and it was long before he could be persuaded even to take food. He showed a decided dislike for the new captain, and growled whenever that officer tried to make friends with him. He seemed to feel that the captain was somewhat responsible for the loss of his master. During the outgoing voyage, Jim provided incessantly about the ship, but on the return he gravely refused to be taken to the shore until the dock was reached. When the ship started on its next voyage, Jim was to be seen, but later he appeared unexpectedly. This time he was accompanied by his master's dog, and always accompanied his master on his voyages.

When the captain died he left Jim to his friend, who was a clerk in the office of an eastern steamship company. Jim stayed with his new master just one night. The next morning he had disappeared. When the boat which the dead captain used to sail was well out to sea, a gaunt, shaggy-haired dog crawled out from some hiding place in the pilot house whistling pitifully. The crew received him with delight, but Jim paid little attention to them. He was searching for one he could not find, and it was long before he could be persuaded even to take food. He showed a decided dislike for the new captain, and growled whenever that officer tried to make friends with him. He seemed to feel that the captain was somewhat responsible for the loss of his master. During the outgoing voyage, Jim provided incessantly about the ship, but on the return he gravely refused to be taken to the shore until the dock was reached. When the ship started on its next voyage, Jim was to be seen, but later he appeared unexpectedly. This time he was accompanied by his master's dog, and always accompanied his master on his voyages.

When the captain died he left Jim to his friend, who was a clerk in the office of an eastern steamship company. Jim stayed with his new master just one night. The next morning he had disappeared. When the boat which the dead captain used to sail was well out to sea, a gaunt, shaggy-haired dog