There were two laughable farces—one in Halifax, where a Mr. Robb was put up by the funny man of the Reporter as the workingmen's candidate, and the other in Cumberland, where Mr. Hibbard was run in opposition to Hon. Dr. Tupper. It was really believed by some that Cumberland would disgrace herself by giving Dr. Tupper the cold shoulder in his adversity. This shows how poor an opinion some people have of their fellows. Mr. Hibbard was the strongest man, for many reasons the farces—one in Halifax, where a Mr. Robb was put up by the funny man of the Reporter as the workingmen's candidate, and the other in Cumberland, was close and exciting and attended by great disorder. A large mob at one time held possession of the streets; attacks were made on the polling places, windows were smashed and an attempt was made to set fire to a hotel. The military were finally called in and charged upon and dispersed the rioters further disturbances were feared but at last accounts they had not been renewed, the declaration of the result of the election all parties.
