

Gleaned by the Way.

Man—Who is the responsible person in this firm? Office boy—I'm the one who gets all the blame.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

A man who stole a city pigeon pleaded that he 'took it for a lark'—a plea surely, which showed a lamentable ignorance of natural history.

'I started out on the theory that the world had an opening for me, and I went to find it.' 'Did you find it?' 'Oh, yes; I'm in a hole.'

The Girl—Go back and lick him you coward! The Victim—But he's already given me two black eyes.

The Girl—Well, he can't give you any more, can he? On Sunday morning a minister's wife saw her son chasing the hens with a stick. She went to the door to investigate and heard him say: 'I'll teach you to lay eggs in a minister's family on Sunday morning.'

The Burdens of Age.

The kidneys seem to be about the first organs to wear out and fall to pieces. The result is backache, rheumatic pains and falling weight.

My husband is particularly liable to seasickness, captain, remarked a lady passenger. 'Could you tell him what to do in case of an attack?' 'Tain't necessary, mum,' replied the captain. 'He'll do it.'

In one of our provincial workhouses the Guardians have decided to provide hammocks for casual tramps. I shouldn't wonder, however, if the tramps come to the conclusion that a night's rest is hardly worth swinging for.

Whooping cough is not dangerous when the cough is kept loose and expectoration easy by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has been used in many epidemics of this disease with perfect success. For sale by all dealers.

The Judge—You say your wife hit you over the head with a plate? Raustus—Yes, sah. The Judge—But your head doesn't show it. Raustus—But you done oughter to see dat plate.—Life.

Paralyzed Limbs.

Today it is sleeplessness, headache, digestive trouble, and irritability. Next thing you know some form of paralysis has developed. Mr. Alex. Housinger, 15 Moore street, St. Catharines, Ont., writes: 'I have been suffering from paralysis of the limbs for the last two years. Doctors failed me, but after using ten boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I resumed work, and now feel better than I did for 20 years.'

'Does your wife ask you for things she knows you cannot afford?' 'She hasn't asked me for a thing since we were married.' 'Great! How do you manage it?' 'When she wants a thing she does not ask me; she tells me.'

CASTORIA For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Dr. H. H. Chase

A child was given instruction in the way it should go. 'And remember this,' said the father—'you should never hit back. If anyone strikes you on the left cheek you should turn to the other right. You know that, don't you?' 'Yes, objected the child, 'but what am I to do if they kick me in the stomach?'

How to Open a Can.

One of the smallest of the little girls in a West Philadelphia family had often assisted her mother in preparing the meals. She observed that her mother, who was rather hasty, always talked to herself when she had any difficulty in opening cans of vegetables.

The little girl thought that the business was a part of the operation. One day she was visiting a neighbor and went into the kitchen to help prepare a meal.

'That's not the way to open a can of corn,' said the little girl. 'Well, what other way is there?' asked the neighbor.

'Well, you take the can of corn and start to open it, and then you bear down and the opener slips. Then you say "Durn this can, and finish it. That's the way my mother opens a can of corn.'

Sheridan was once staying at the house of an elderly invalid lady of his country, who wanted more of his company than he was willing to give. Proposing one day to take a stroll with her, he accused himself on account of the badness of the weather shortly afterward she met him sneak 'tag out alone.'

'So, Mr. Sheridan,' she said, 'it has cleared up. Just a little, wasn't enough for you, but not enough for two.'

The father of a small family tells us this one: 'My wife instructed our little boy when he was invited out to lunch the other day that when he was asked to have a second helping of cake "he should refuse." "You must say, "No I thank you, I've had enough,"' said she. "And don't you forget it."

'He didn't. When asked if he'd have some more cake he said, "No, I thank you, I've had enough, and don't you forget it."

A little boy was reading in his Scottish history an account of the battle of Bannockburn. He read as follows: "And when the English had the new army on the hill behind their spirits became dampened." The teacher asked him what was meant by dampening their spirits. The boy, not comprehending the meaning, simply answered, "Puttin' water in the whiskey."

Real Estate Buyer (stung)—I thought you said this place was a great railway centre? Suburban Land Promoter—Great Scott, man! There's a siding, a double track and a switch. What more do you want?

In China the rent of a house is from $5 to $12 a month, house servants cost only $4 a month, eggs are 2 cents.

The Oldest Member!

In a short time Mr. Samuel Young, British M. P., will enter on his ninetieth year. He is the oldest man in the House of Commons, though it is hard to believe it, for he is wonderfully active. Mr. Young was hailed the other day by an old friend, who congratulated him on looking so well for a man who must be at least 75. With a twinkle in his eye the aged M. P. replied: 'Yes, I am at least 75, for in a short time I celebrate my 80 birthday. He has sat in Parliament since 1892.'

Canada Cement Company, Limited. $3,600 in Cash Prizes for Farmers. Your Photograph May Win a Prize. A MONG the prizes we are offering in our big Prize Contest is one of $3,600 (Prize "C") for the farmer in each Province who furnishes us with a photograph showing the best of any particular kind of work done on his farm during 1911 with "CANADA" Cement. For this prize, work of every description is included. Now just as soon as you take that new silo, barn, feeding floor or dairy, that you've been thinking of building, why not photograph it and send the picture to us? The photograph doesn't necessarily have to be taken by a professional of an expert. As long as you can get your photograph so that it will show the work clearly, it is all right. In any event, don't let the idea of having a photograph made deter you. Particularly as we have requested your local dealer to help you. It is not convenient for the farmer to produce a photograph in the neighborhood. By this means you are placed on an equal footing with every other contestant. Get the circular, which gives you full particulars of the conditions and of the other three prizes. Every dealer who sells "CANADA" Cement will have on hand a supply of these circulars—and he'll give you one if you just ask for it. Or if you prefer, you can use the attached coupon—or a postcard will do—send it to us and you'll receive the complete details of the contest by return mail. If you haven't received your copy of "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete," write for that, too. It's a finely illustrated book of 148 pages full of useful and practical information of the uses of concrete. Write us to-night, and you'll receive the book and the circular promptly. Do not delay—act right down. Take your pen or pencil, and fill out the coupon NOW. Please send me test Circular and book. Name: Address: Canada Cement Company, Limited, National Bank Building, Montreal.

What Rum Cost One Man. A pitiable instance of how strong drink will drag a man down was furnished a few days ago when a Salvation Army officer took to Bellevue Hospital as a victim of nephritis, broken and cast off by his family and friends. This victim of rum is the son of one of the world's most famous men. As a young man he went abroad with his father and met royalty. After a college education he was a member of the New York Stock and Produce Exchanges. He was a member of the most exclusive clubs, and had a wife and four children. He became involved in a financial scandal, and for a time in an asylum, and then dropped for down in the social scale. It was impossible for his family to aid him other than to pay his board in places where he could not obtain
