

P. G. W. P. Longley asked if the question, No. 8 in the order of business in the Blue Book, "Have all present maintained the pledge inviolate?" should receive a definite reply by action or voice. Discussion ensued, but no vote was taken and no decision given by the G. W. P., but it was generally agreed that each Division has control of this matter.

Thanks to Railway and stage lines for reduction of fares were adopted.

It was moved, seconded, sustained and passed unanimously, that the thanks of this Grand Body be tendered the people of Canning, and Canning Division, for their hospitality.

Moved by D. H. Simpson, seconded by Benjamin Hills, and adopted:

"That feeling the importance of petitioning the Dominion Parliament for prohibition, this Grand Division hereby empowers its Executive to act in concert with the Executives of the other Temperance Organizations to petition in the manner to be mutually agreed upon."

The papers from the committee on Abstainer were taken from table. A letter from P. G. S. Monaghan to the G. W. P. was read, and explanation made by G. W. P. and G. S., after which, and some discussion, it was voted on motion of P. G. W. P. Longley and Deputy Farnham:

"That the matter of the Abstainer and all accounts between the Grand Division and Brother Monaghan be referred to the Executive for final settlement."

500 copies of the Journal of Proceedings of this session were ordered to be printed and distributed as usual.

The sum of two dollars was voted to the janitor of the Hall.

It was moved that this meeting do now adjourn.

Minutes of this third sitting were read over and approved. The session was then terminated by the use of the ceremony of this branch of our order.

The Grand Division will re-assemble in Quarterly Session in Kellogg Division Room, Elmsdale, Hants Co., on Tuesday, the 27th of April next, commencing at 3 o'clock, p. m.
