

judge of the supreme court or of a county court, in any case occurring within the county or counties for which he is such judge, may examine and inquire into the circumstances of such case and conviction, and when he considers that the material and moral welfare of the boy requires such sentence, he may, as an additional sentence for such offence, sentence such boy to be sent, either forthwith, or at the expiration of his imprisonment in such jail, to such industrial home, to be there detained for the purpose of his industrial and moral education for an indefinite period, not exceeding in the whole five years from the commencement of his imprisonment in the common jail.

Detention for purposes of reform.

5. Every boy so sentenced shall be detained in such industrial home until the expiration of the fixed term, if any, of his sentence, unless sooner discharged by lawful authority, and thereafter shall, subject to the provisions hereof and to any regulations made as hereinafter provided, be detained in such industrial home for a period not to exceed five years from the commencement of his imprisonment, for the purpose of his industrial and moral education.

Visiting clergymen.

2. The clergymen of all religious denominations shall at all convenient hours and subject to the rules or regulations governing such industrial home be admitted therein for the purpose of giving spiritual advice and instruction to the inmates therein of their respective denominations.

Commitment of boy to jail until conveyed to industrial home.

6. A copy of the sentence of the court, duly certified by the proper officer, or the warrant or order of the judge or magistrate by whom any boy is sentenced to confinement in such industrial home, shall be a sufficient authority to the sheriff, constable or other officer who is directed verbally or otherwise so to do, to convey such boy to the common jail of the county where such sentence is pronounced, and for the jailer of such jail to receive such boy and to detain him until there is presented to such jailer a warrant from the chairman of the governing board of the said industrial home, (which warrant such chairman is hereby authorized to issue under his official seal,) requiring the sheriff or a constable, or other officer, to deliver such boy to the superintendent of the said industrial home.

Conveyance of boy to industrial home; power of officers.

7. The sheriff, constable or other officer, on the receipt by him of the warrant provided for in the last preceding section, may secure and convey such boy through any county or counties in the said province through which he has to pass in order to deliver such boy to the said superintendent; and until he has delivered such boy to the said superintendent, such sheriff, constable or other officer shall, in all counties of the said province through which it may be necessary to convey such boy, have the same authority and power over and with regard to such boy, and to command the assistance of any person in pre-
