

An Act further to amend the Criminal Law

WHEREAS it is expedient to make more effectual provision for the Preamble. punishment of the offences, in this Act named;—Therefore Her Majesty, &c.

I. Any person, who having stolen or otherwise feloniously taken any 5 chattel, money, valuable security, or other property whatsoever, in any part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any colony or dependency thereof, or in any foreign state or country, shall afterwards have the same property in his possession in any part of this Province, may be dealt with, indicted, tried or punished for larceny or theft in such part of 10 the Province where he shall so have such property, in the same manner, as if he had actually stolen or feloniously taken it in such part: And if any person in any part of this Province shall feloniously receive or take any chattel, money, valuable security, or other property whatsoever, which shall have been stolen or otherwise feloniously taken in any part of the 15 United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any colony or dependency thereof, or in any foreign state or country, such person knowing the said property to have been stolen or otherwise feloniously taken, he may be dealt with, indicted, tried and punished for such offence in such part of the Province where he shall so receive or have the said property, in the 20 same manner as if it had been originally stolen or feloniously taken in such part.

knowingly receiving of such property.

II. In establishing the commission of the stealing or feloniously taking of any such property in any part of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any colony or dependency thereof, or in any foreign state or country, it shall be suffi-25 cient to prove that the same was taken under circumstances which would constitute a larceny or felonious taking thereof in this Province.

What shall be sufficient evidence of the larceny, &c., in such case.

III. Any person who shall assault any Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff, or a Bailiff of any Civil Court in Lower Canada, while acting in discharge of his duty, or any Recors, Witness, or other person acting in aid of any such Sheriff, 30 Deputy Sheriff, or Bailiff, in the actual discharge of his duty, or who shall by force, violence, menaces, or threats, prevent or obstruct any such Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff, or Bailiff, while acting in discharge of his duty, or any Recors, Witness, or other person acting in aid of such Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff, or Bailiff, in the discharge of his duty, shall be guilty of aggravated 35 assault, and being found guilty thereof, may be punished in the same manner as if found guilty of a like assault on a peace or revenue officer while in the discharge of his duty.

Persons assaulting a Sheriff, Bailiff, &c., in the discharge of his duty, to be guilty of an aggravated assault, &c.
