

letter from any officer duly authorized to that effect by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government, and delivered before two witnesses to the person holding such licence, who shall thereafter be held, in all respects and to all purposes of law, to have no licence to keep a house of public entertainment, or to retail spirituous liquors.

VII: And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that no licence shall be granted for keeping any such house or other place of public entertainment, until the person or persons applying for the same shall have entered into a bond to Her Majesty, before one or more Justices of the Peace, in the sum of forty pounds currency, with two sureties in the sum of twenty pounds currency each, to do, perform, and observe the conditions and requirements of this Ordinance, and of the Act hereinbefore cited and amended; which bond shall, within one month from the time of the taking of the same, be transmitted by the said Justice, or Justices, to the Clerks of the Peace, for their respective Districts.

VIII. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that for every certificate, bail bond, or other entry whatsoever, or for executing any of the duties prescribed by this Ordinance, the Clerks of the Peace shall only be entitled to the sum allowed them for similar services, by a certain Act passed in the sixth year of the Reign of His late Majesty William the Fourth, chapter fourteen, which Act expired on the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight; that is to say, to the sum of one shilling and threepence currency, any usage, tariff, or law to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that all licences, to be granted under the authority of the Act herein first above cited and amended and of this Ordinance, by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Person Administering the Government of this Province, shall be so granted as to expire between the first and twentieth days of the month of May next, after the date thereof, and for no longer time, any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, who shall have obtained a licence or licences in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, to proceed to sell or retail spirituous liquors, or to keep a house or houses of public entertainment, until he, she, or they shall have exhibited such licence or licences to the person, or to one of the persons, hereby authorized to grant certificates for licences, and such person shall, on the first Sunday thereafter, cause such licence to be publicly read at the Church door of the Parish, Seigniorship or Township, for which the same shall have been granted, immediately after divine service in the forenoon, or where there shall be no Church, then at the place of most public resort in the Seigniorship or Township, for which such licence shall be granted, and shall affix or cause to be affixed on the door of such Church, or where there is no Church, at the place of most public resort, a notification that the person to whom such licence hath been granted, hath been, and is duly qualified and authorized to sell spirituous liquors, or to keep a house of public entertainment in such Parish or place, and every such person holding such licence, who shall sell spirituous liquors, or keep a house of public entertainment, before he, or she, shall have exhibited such licence in the manner hereinbefore provided, shall be liable to the penalty or penalties imposed by law on persons selling spirituous liquors without licence.

XI. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that every person, who shall obtain a licence to keep a house of public entertainment and to retail
